129 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act are cumulative and do not affect 130 the availability of remedies under other law or the recognition of a 131 foreign support order on the basis of comity.

132 (b) Sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act do not (1) provide the 133 exclusive method of establishing or enforcing a support order under 134 the law of this state; or (2) grant a tribunal of this state jurisdiction to 135 render judgment or issue an order relating to child custody or 136 visitation in a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

150 Sec. 6. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) In a proceeding to establish 151 or enforce a support order or to determine parentage of a child, a 152 tribunal of this state may exercise personal jurisdiction over a 153 nonresident individual or the individual's guardian or conservator if 154 (1) the individual is personally served with process within this state; 155 (2) the individual submits to the jurisdiction of this state by consent in 162 intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived by that 163 act of intercourse; or (7) there is any other basis consistent with the 164 constitutions of this state and the United States for the exercise of 165 personal jurisdiction.

166 (b) The bases of personal jurisdiction set forth in subsection (a) or in 167 any other law of this state may not be used to acquire personal 168 jurisdiction for a tribunal of this state to modify a child support order 169 of another state unless the requirements of section 55 of this act are 170 met, or, in the case of a foreign support order, unless the requirements 171 of section 59 of this act are met.

172 Sec. 7. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Personal jurisdiction acquired 173 by a tribunal of this state in a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, 174 inclusive, of this act or other law of this state relating to a support 175 order continues as long as a tribunal of this state has continuing, 176 exclusive jurisdiction to modify its order or continuing jurisdiction to 177 enforce its order as provided by sections 10, 11 and 16 of this act.

178 Sec. 8. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Under sections 1 to 78, 179 inclusive, of this act, a tribunal of this state may serve as an initiating 180 tribunal to forward proceedings to a tribunal of another state and as a 181 responding tribunal for proceedings initiated in another state or a 182 foreign country.

183 Sec. 9. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A tribunal of this state may 184 exercise jurisdiction to establish a support order if the petition or 185 comparable pleading is filed after a pleading is filed in another state or 186 a foreign country only if (1) the petition or comparable pleading in this 187 state is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in the other state 188 or the foreign country for filing a responsive pleading challenging the 189 exercise of jurisdiction by the other state or the foreign country; (2) the 190 contesting party timely challenges the exercise of jurisdiction in the 191 other state or the foreign country; and (3) if relevant, this state is the 192 home state of the child.

193 (b) A tribunal of this state may not exercise jurisdiction to establish a 194 support order if the petition or comparable pleading is filed before a 195 petition or comparable pleading is filed in another state or a foreign 196 country if (1) the petition or comparable pleading in the other state or

197 foreign country is filed before the expiration of the time allowed in this 198 state for filing a responsive pleading challenging the exercise of 199 jurisdiction by this state; (2) the contesting party timely challenges the 200 exercise of jurisdiction in this state; and (3) if relevant, the other state 201 or foreign country is the home state of the child.

202 Sec. 10. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A tribunal of this state that 203 has issued a child support order consistent with the law of this state 204 has and shall exercise continuing, exclusive jurisdiction to modify its 205 child support order if the order is the controlling order and (1) at the 206 time of the filing of a request for modification this state is the residence 207 of the obligor, the individual obligee or the child for whose benefit the 208 support order is issued; or (2) even if this state is not the residence of 209 the obligor, the individual obligee or the child for whose benefit the 210 support order is issued, the parties consent in a record or in open court 211 that the tribunal of this state may continue to exercise jurisdiction to 212 modify its order.

213 (b) A tribunal of this state that has issued a child support order 214 consistent with the law of this state may not exercise continuing, 215 exclusive jurisdiction to modify the order if (1) all of the parties who 216 are individuals file consent in a record with the tribunal of this state 217 that a tribunal of another state that has jurisdiction over at least one of 218 the parties who is an individual or that is located in the state of 219 residence of the child may modify the order and assume continuing, 220 exclusive jurisdiction; or (2) its order is not the controlling order.

221 (c) If a tribunal of another state has issued a child support order 222 pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act, as amended 223 from time to time, or a law substantially similar to that act which 224 modifies a child support order of a tribunal of this state, tribunals of 225 this state shall recognize the continuing, exclusive jurisdiction of the 226 tribunal of the other state.

227 (d) A tribunal of this state that lacks continuing, exclusive 228 jurisdiction to modify a child support order may serve as an initiating

229 tribunal to request a tribunal of another state to modify a support 230 order issued in that state.

231 (e) A temporary support order issued ex parte or pending resolution 232 of a jurisdictional conflict does not create continuing, exclusive 233 jurisdiction in the issuing tribunal.

234 Sec. 11. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A tribunal of this state that 235 has issued a child support order consistent with the law of this state 236 may serve as an initiating tribunal to request a tribunal of another state 237 to enforce (1) the order if the order is the controlling order and has not 238 been modified by a tribunal of another state that assumed jurisdiction 239 pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act; or (2) a money 240 judgment for arrears of support and interest on the order accrued 241 before a determination that an order of a tribunal of another state is the 242 controlling order.

243 (b) A tribunal of this state having continuing jurisdiction over a 244 support order may act as a responding tribunal to enforce the order.

245 Sec. 12. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) If a proceeding is brought 246 under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act and only one tribunal has 247 issued a child support order, the order of that tribunal controls and 248 must be recognized.

249 (b) If a proceeding is brought under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of 250 this act, and two or more child support orders have been issued by 251 tribunals of this state, another state, or a foreign country with regard to 252 the same obligor and same child, a tribunal of this state having 253 personal jurisdiction over both the obligor and individual obligee shall 254 apply the following rules and by order shall determine which order 255 controls and must be recognized:

256 (1) If only one of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive 257 jurisdiction under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, the order of 258 that tribunal controls.

259       (2) If more than one of the tribunals would have continuing, 260 exclusive jurisdiction under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act (A) an 261 order issued by a tribunal in the current home state of the child 262 controls; or (B) if an order has not been issued in the current home 263 state of the child, the order most recently issued controls.

264       (3) If none of the tribunals would have continuing, exclusive 265 jurisdiction under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, the tribunal of 266 this state shall issue a child support order, which controls.

267       (c) If two or more child support orders have been issued for the 268 same obligor and same child, upon request of a party who is an 269 individual or that is a support enforcement agency, a tribunal of this 270 state having personal jurisdiction over both the obligor and the obligee 271 who is an individual shall determine which order controls under 272 subsection (b) of this section. The request may be filed with a 273 registration for enforcement or registration for modification pursuant 274 to sections 45 to 60, inclusive, of this act or may be filed as a separate 275 proceeding.

276       (d) A request to determine which is the controlling order must be 277 accompanied by a copy of every child support order in effect and the 278 applicable record of payments. The requesting party shall give notice 279 of the request to each party whose rights may be affected by the 280 determination.

281       (e) The tribunal that issued the controlling order under subsection 282 (a), (b) or (c) of this section has continuing jurisdiction to the extent 283 provided in section 10 or 11 of this act.

284       (f) A tribunal of this state that determines by order which is the 285 controlling order under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection (b) or 286 subsection (c) of this section, or that issues a new controlling order 287 under subdivision (3) of subsection (b) of this section, shall state in that 288 order (1) the basis upon which the tribunal made its determination; (2) 289 the amount of prospective support, if any; and (3) the total amount of 290 consolidated arrears and accrued interest, if any, under all of the 291 orders after all payments made are credited as provided by section 14 292 of this act.

293 (g) Within thirty days after issuance of an order determining which 294 is the controlling order, the party obtaining the order shall file a 295 certified copy of it in each tribunal that issued or registered an earlier 296 order of child support. A party or support enforcement agency 297 obtaining the order that fails to file a certified copy is subject to 298 appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file 299 arises. The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of 300 the controlling order.

301 (h) An order that has been determined to be the controlling order, or 302 a judgment for consolidated arrears of support and interest, if any, 303 made pursuant to this section must be recognized in proceedings 304 under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

305 Sec. 13. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) In responding to registrations 306 or petitions for enforcement of two or more child support orders in 307 effect at the same time with regard to the same obligor and different 308 individual obligees, at least one of which was issued by a tribunal of 309 another state or a foreign country, a tribunal of this state shall enforce 310 those orders in the same manner as if the orders had been issued by a 311 tribunal of this state.

312 Sec. 14. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A tribunal of this state shall 313 credit amounts collected for a particular period pursuant to any child 314 support order against the amounts owed for the same period under 315 any other child support order for support of the same child issued by a 316 tribunal of this state, another state or a foreign country.

317 Sec. 15. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A tribunal of this state 318 exercising personal jurisdiction over a nonresident in a proceeding 319 under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, under other law of this 320 state relating to a support order, or recognizing a foreign support 321 order may receive evidence from outside this state pursuant to section 322 32 of this act, communicate with a tribunal outside this state pursuant

323 to section 33 of this act and obtain discovery through a tribunal outside 324 this state pursuant to section 34 of this act. In all other respects, 325 sections 17 to 60, inclusive, of this act do not apply, and the tribunal 326 shall apply the procedural and substantive law of this state.

327 Sec. 16. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A tribunal of this state 328 issuing a spousal support order consistent with the law of this state 329 has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction to modify the spousal support 330 order throughout the existence of the support obligation.

331 (b) A tribunal of this state may not modify a spousal support order 332 issued by a tribunal of another state or a foreign country having 333 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over that order under the law of that 334 state or foreign country.

335 (c) A tribunal of this state that has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction 336 over a spousal support order may serve as (1) an initiating tribunal to 337 request a tribunal of another state to enforce the spousal support order 338 issued in this state; or (2) a responding tribunal to enforce or modify its 339 own spousal support order.

340 Sec. 17. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise
341 provided in sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, sections 17 to 35, 342 inclusive, of this act apply to all proceedings under sections 1 to 78, 343 inclusive, of this act.

344 (b) An individual petitioner or a support enforcement agency may 345 initiate a proceeding authorized under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of 346 this act by filing a petition in an initiating tribunal for forwarding to a 347 responding tribunal or by filing a petition or a comparable pleading 348 directly in a tribunal of another state or a foreign country which has or 349 can obtain personal jurisdiction over the respondent.

350 Sec. 18. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A minor parent, or a guardian 351 or other legal representative of a minor parent, may maintain a 352 proceeding on behalf of or for the benefit of the minor's child.

353       Sec. 19. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Except as otherwise provided 354 in sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act a responding tribunal of this 355 state shall (1) apply the procedural and substantive law generally 356 applicable to similar proceedings originating in this state and may 357 exercise all powers and provide all remedies available in those 358 proceedings; and (2) determine the duty of support and the amount 359 payable in accordance with the law and support guidelines of this 360 state.

361       Sec. 20. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Upon the filing of a petition 362 authorized by sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act an initiating 363 tribunal of this state shall forward the petition and its accompanying 364 documents (1) to the responding tribunal or appropriate support 365 enforcement agency in the responding state; or (2) if the identity of the 366 responding tribunal is unknown, to the state information agency of the 367 responding state with a request that they be forwarded to the 368 appropriate tribunal and that receipt be acknowledged.

369       (b) If requested by the responding tribunal, a tribunal of this state 370 shall issue a certificate or other document and make findings required 371 by the law of the responding state. If the responding tribunal is in a 372 foreign country, upon request the tribunal of this state shall specify the 373 amount of support sought, convert that amount into the equivalent 374 amount in the foreign currency under applicable official or market 375 exchange rate as publicly reported and provide any other documents 376 necessary to satisfy the requirements of the responding foreign 377 tribunal.

378       Sec. 21. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) When a responding tribunal 379 of this state receives a petition or comparable pleading from an 380 initiating tribunal or directly pursuant to subsection (b) of section 17 of 381 this act, it shall cause the petition or pleading to be filed and notify the 382 petitioner where and when it was filed.

387 order an obligor to comply with a support order, specifying the 388 amount and the manner of compliance; (3) order income withholding; 389 (4) determine the amount of any arrearages and specify a method of 395 employment and telephone number at the place of employment; (9) 396 issue a capias mittimus for an obligor who has failed after proper

399 warrants; (10) order the obligor to seek appropriate employment by 400 specified methods; (11) award reasonable attorney's fees and other fees

402 (c) A responding tribunal of this state shall include in a support 403 order issued under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, or in the 404 documents accompanying the order, the calculations on which the 405 support order is based.

406 (d) A responding tribunal of this state may not condition the 407 payment of a support order issued under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of 408 this act upon compliance by a party with provisions for visitation.

409 (e) If a responding tribunal of this state issues an order under 410 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, the tribunal shall send a copy of 411 the order to the petitioner and the respondent and to the initiating 412 tribunal, if any.

413 (f) If requested to enforce a support order, arrears, or judgment or 414 modify a support order stated in a foreign currency, a responding 415 tribunal of this state shall convert the amount stated in the foreign 416 currency to the equivalent amount in dollars under the applicable

417 official or market exchange rate as publicly reported.

418 Sec. 22. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If a petition or comparable 419 pleading is received by an inappropriate tribunal of this state, the 420 tribunal shall forward the pleading and accompanying documents to 421 an appropriate tribunal of this state or another state and notify the 422 petitioner where and when the pleading was sent.

423 Sec. 23. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A support enforcement 424 agency of this state, upon request, shall provide services to a petitioner 425 in a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

426 (b) A support enforcement agency of this state that is providing 427 services to the petitioner shall (1) take all steps necessary to enable an 428 appropriate tribunal of this state, another state, or a foreign country to 429 obtain jurisdiction over the respondent; (2) request an appropriate 430 tribunal to set a date, time, and place for a hearing; (3) make a 431 reasonable effort to obtain all relevant information, including 432 information as to income and property of the parties; (4) within five 433 days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, after receipt 434 of notice in a record from an initiating, responding, or registering 435 tribunal, send a copy of the notice to the petitioner; (5) within five 436 days, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays, after receipt 437 of communication in a record from the respondent or the respondent's 438 attorney, send a copy of the communication to the petitioner; and (6) 439 notify the petitioner if jurisdiction over the respondent cannot be 440 obtained.

441 (c) A support enforcement agency of this state that requests 442 registration of a child support order in this state for enforcement or for 443 modification shall make reasonable efforts (1) to ensure that the order 444 to be registered is the controlling order; or (2) if two or more child 445 support orders exist and the identity of the controlling order has not 446 been determined, to ensure that a request for such a determination is 447 made in a tribunal having jurisdiction to do so.

448 (d) A support enforcement agency of this state that requests

449 registration and enforcement of a support order, arrears or judgment 450 stated in a foreign currency shall convert the amounts stated in the 451 foreign currency into the equivalent amounts in dollars under the 452 applicable official or market exchange rate as publicly reported.

453 (e) A support enforcement agency of this state shall issue or request 454 a tribunal of this state to issue a child support order and an income-455 withholding order that redirect payment of current support, arrears 456 and interest if requested to do so by a support enforcement agency of 457 another state pursuant to section 35 of this act.

458 (f) Sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act do not create or negate a 459 relationship of attorney and client or other fiduciary relationship 460 between a support enforcement agency or the attorney for the agency 461 and the individual being assisted by the agency.

462 Sec. 24. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) If the Commissioner of 463 Social Services determines that the Bureau of Child Support 464 Enforcement is neglecting or refusing to provide services to an 465 individual, or if the Chief Court Administrator determines that 466 Support Enforcement Services is neglecting or refusing to provide 467 services to an individual, the commissioner or Chief Court 468 Administrator may order their respective agencies to perform their 469 duties under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act or may provide 470 those services directly to the individual.

471 (b) The Attorney General may determine that a foreign country has 472 established a reciprocal arrangement for child support with this state 473 and take appropriate action for notification of the determination.

474 Sec. 25. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) An individual may employ 475 private counsel to represent the individual in proceedings authorized 476 by sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

477 Sec. 26. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Support Enforcement 478 Services of the Superior Court is the state information agency under 479 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

480 (b) The state information agency shall (1) compile and maintain a 481 current list, including addresses, of the tribunals in this state which 482 have jurisdiction under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act and any 483 support enforcement agencies in this state and transmit a copy to the 484 state information agency of every other state; (2) maintain a register of 485 names and addresses of tribunals and support enforcement agencies 486 received from other states; (3) forward to the appropriate tribunal in 487 this state in which the obligee who is an individual or the obligor 488 resides, or in which the obligor's property is believed to be located, all 489 documents concerning a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, 490 of this act received from another state or a foreign country; and (4) 491 obtain information concerning the location of the obligor and the 492 obligor's property within this state not exempt from execution, by such 493 means as postal verification and federal or state locator services, 494 examination of telephone directories, requests for the obligor's address 495 from employers, and examination of governmental records, including, 496 to the extent not prohibited by other law, those relating to real 497 property, vital statistics, law enforcement, taxation, motor vehicles, 498 driver's licenses and Social Security.

499 Sec. 27. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) In a proceeding under 500 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act a petitioner seeking to establish a 501 support order, to determine parentage of a child, or to register and 502 modify a support order of a tribunal of another state or a foreign 503 country must file a petition. Unless otherwise ordered under section 28 504 of this act, the petition or accompanying documents must provide, so 505 far as known, the name, residential address and Social Security 506 numbers of the obligor and the obligee or the parent and alleged 507 parent, and the name, sex, residential address, Social Security number 508 and date of birth of each child for whose benefit support is sought or 509 whose parentage is to be determined. Unless filed at the time of 510 registration, the petition must be accompanied by a copy of any 511 support order known to have been issued by another tribunal. The 512 petition may include any other information that may assist in locating 513 or identifying the respondent.

514 (b) The petition must specify the relief sought. The petition and 515 accompanying documents must conform substantially with the 516 requirements imposed by the forms mandated by federal law for use 517 in cases filed by a support enforcement agency.

518 Sec. 28. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If a party alleges in an affidavit 519 or a pleading under oath that the health, safety or liberty of a party or 520 child would be jeopardized by disclosure of specific identifying 521 information, that information must be sealed and may not be disclosed 522 to the other party or the public. After a hearing in which a tribunal 523 takes into consideration the health, safety or liberty of the party or 524 child, the tribunal may order disclosure of information that the 525 tribunal determines to be in the interest of justice.

526 Sec. 29. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) The petitioner may not be 527 required to pay a filing fee or other costs.

528 (b) If an obligee prevails, a responding tribunal of this state may 529 assess against an obligor filing fees, reasonable attorney's fees, other 530 costs and necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred by 531 the obligee and the obligee's witnesses. The tribunal may not assess 532 fees, costs or expenses against the obligee or the support enforcement 533 agency of either the initiating or responding state or foreign country, 534 except as provided by other law. Attorney's fees may be taxed as costs, 535 and may be ordered paid directly to the attorney, who may enforce the 536 order in the attorney's own name. Payment of support owed to the 537 obligee has priority over fees, costs and expenses.

538 (c) The tribunal shall order the payment of costs and reasonable 539 attorney's fees if it determines that a hearing was requested primarily 540 for delay. In a proceeding under sections 45 to 60, inclusive, of this act, 541 a hearing is presumed to have been requested primarily for delay if a 542 registered support order is confirmed or enforced without change.

543 Sec. 30. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Participation by a petitioner 544 in a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act before a 545 responding tribunal, whether in person, by private attorney, or 546 through services provided by the support enforcement agency, does 547 not confer personal jurisdiction over the petitioner in another 548 proceeding.

549 (b) A petitioner is not amenable to service of civil process while 550 physically present in this state to participate in a proceeding under 551 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

552 (c) The immunity granted by this section does not extend to civil 553 litigation based on acts unrelated to a proceeding under sections 1 to 554 78, inclusive, of this act committed by a party while physically present 555 in this state to participate in the proceeding.

556 Sec. 31. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A party whose parentage of a 557 child has been previously determined by or pursuant to law may not 558 plead nonparentage as a defense to a proceeding under sections 1 to 559 78, inclusive, of this act.

560 Sec. 32. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) The physical presence of a 561 nonresident party who is an individual in a tribunal of this state is not 562 required for the establishment, enforcement or modification of a 563 support order or the rendition of a judgment determining parentage of 564 a child.

565 (b) An affidavit, a document substantially complying with federally 566 mandated forms, or a document incorporated by reference in any of 567 them, which would not be excluded under the hearsay rule if given in 568 person, is admissible in evidence if given under penalty of perjury by a 569 party or witness residing outside this state.

570 (c) A copy of the record of child support payments certified as a true 571 copy of the original by the custodian of the record may be forwarded 572 to a responding tribunal. The copy is evidence of facts asserted in it, 573 and is admissible to show whether payments were made.

574 (d) Copies of bills for testing for parentage of a child and for 575 prenatal and postnatal health care of the mother and child, furnished

576 to the adverse party at least ten days before trial, are admissible in 577 evidence to prove the amount of the charges billed and that the 578 charges were reasonable, necessary and customary.

579 (e) Documentary evidence transmitted from outside this state to a 580 tribunal of this state by telephone, telecopier or other electronic means 581 that do not provide an original record may not be excluded from 582 evidence on an objection based on the means of transmission.

583 (f) In a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, a 584 tribunal of this state shall permit a party or witness residing outside 585 this state to be deposed or to testify under penalty of perjury by 586 telephone, audiovisual means or other electronic means at a 587 designated tribunal or other location. A tribunal of this state shall 588 cooperate with other tribunals in designating an appropriate location 589 for the deposition or testimony.

590 (g) If a party called to testify at a civil hearing refuses to answer on 591 the ground that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the trier of 592 fact may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

593 (h) A privilege against disclosure of communications between 594 spouses does not apply in a proceeding under sections 1 to 78, 595 inclusive, of this act.

596 (i) The defense of immunity based on the relationship of husband 597 and wife or parent and child does not apply in a proceeding under 598 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

599 (j) A voluntary acknowledgment of paternity, certified as a true 600 copy, is admissible to establish parentage of the child.

601 Sec. 33. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A tribunal of this state may 602 communicate with a tribunal outside this state in a record or by 603 telephone, electronic mail or other means, to obtain information 604 concerning the laws, the legal effect of a judgment, decree or order of 605 that tribunal, and the status of a proceeding. A tribunal of this state

606 may furnish similar information by similar means to a tribunal outside 607 this state.

608 Sec. 34. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A tribunal of this state may (1)
609 request a tribunal outside this state to assist in obtaining discovery; 610 and (2) upon request, compel a person over which it has jurisdiction to 611 respond to a discovery order issued by a tribunal outside this state.

612 Sec. 35. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A support enforcement 613 agency or tribunal of this state shall disburse promptly any amounts 614 received pursuant to a support order, as directed by the order. The 615 agency or tribunal shall furnish to a requesting party or tribunal of 616 another state or a foreign country a certified statement by the 617 custodian of the record of the amounts and dates of all payments 618 received.

619 (b) If neither the obligor, nor the obligee who is an individual, nor 620 the child resides in this state, upon request from the support 621 enforcement agency of this state or another state, the support 622 enforcement agency of this state or a tribunal of this state shall (1) 623 direct that the support payment be made to the support enforcement 624 agency in the state in which the obligee is receiving services; and (2) 625 issue and send to the obligor's employer a conforming income-626 withholding order or an administrative notice of change of payee, 627 reflecting the redirected payments.

628 (c) The support enforcement agency of this state receiving 629 redirected payments from another state pursuant to a law similar to 630 subsection (b) of this section shall furnish to a requesting party or 631 tribunal of the other state a certified statement by the custodian of the 632 record of the amount and dates of all payments received.

633 Sec. 36. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) If a support order entitled 634 to recognition under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, has not been 635 issued, a responding tribunal of this state with personal jurisdiction 636 over the parties may issue a support order if (1) the individual seeking 637 the order resides outside this state; or (2) the support enforcement 638 agency seeking the order is located outside this state.

639 (b) The tribunal may issue a temporary child support order if the 640 tribunal determines that such an order is appropriate and the 641 individual ordered to pay is (1) a presumed father of the child; (2) 642 petitioning to have his paternity adjudicated; (3) identified as the 643 father of the child through genetic testing; (4) an alleged father who 644 has declined to submit to genetic testing; (5) shown by clear and 645 convincing evidence to be the father of the child; (6) an acknowledged 646 father as provided by section 46b-172 of the general statutes; (7) the 647 mother of the child; or (8) an individual who has been ordered to pay 648 child support in a previous proceeding and the order has not been 649 reversed or vacated.

650 (c) Upon finding, after notice and opportunity to be heard, that an 651 obligor owes a duty of support, the tribunal shall issue a support order 652 directed to the obligor and may issue other orders pursuant to section 653 21 of this act.

654 Sec. 37. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A tribunal of this state 655 authorized to determine parentage of a child may serve as a 656 responding tribunal in a proceeding to determine parentage of a child 657 brought under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act or a law or 658 procedure substantially similar to sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

659 Sec. 38. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) An income-withholding order 660 issued in another state may be sent by or on behalf of the obligee, or by 661 the support enforcement agency, to the person defined as the obligor's 662 employer under section 52-362 of the general statutes, as amended by 663 this act, without first filing a petition or comparable pleading or 664 registering the order with a tribunal of this state.

665 Sec. 39. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Upon receipt of an income-666 withholding order, the obligor's employer shall immediately provide a 667 copy of the order to the obligor.

668 (b) The employer shall treat an income-withholding order issued in 669 another state which appears regular on its face as if it had been issued 670 by a tribunal of this state.

671 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section 672 and section 40 of this act, the employer shall withhold and distribute 673 the funds as directed in the withholding order by complying with 674 terms of the order which specify (1) the duration and amount of 675 periodic payments of current child support, stated as a sum certain; (2) 676 the person designated to receive payments and the address to which 677 the payments are to be forwarded; (3) medical support, whether in the 678 form of periodic cash payment, stated as a sum certain, or ordering the 679 obligor to provide health insurance coverage for the child under a 680 policy available through the obligor's employment; (4) the amount of 681 periodic payments of fees and costs for a support enforcement agency, 682 the issuing tribunal, and the obligee's attorney, stated as sums certain; 683 and (5) the amount of periodic payments of arrearages and interest on 684 arrearages, stated as sums certain.

685 (d) An employer shall comply with the law of the state of the 686 obligor's principal place of employment for withholding from income 687 with respect to (1) the employer's fee for processing an income-688 withholding order; (2) the maximum amount permitted to be withheld 689 from the obligor's income; and (3) the times within which the employer 690 must implement the withholding order and forward the child support 691 payment.

692 Sec. 40. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If an obligor's employer 693 receives two or more income-withholding orders with respect to the 694 earnings of the same obligor, the employer satisfies the terms of the 695 orders if the employer complies with the law of the state of the 696 obligor's principal place of employment to establish the priorities for 697 withholding and allocating income withheld for two or more child 698 support obligees.

699 Sec. 41. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) An employer that complies 700 with an income-withholding order issued in another state in 701 accordance with sections 38 to 44, inclusive, of this act is not subject to 702 civil liability to an individual or agency with regard to the employer's 703 withholding of child support from the obligor's income.

704 Sec. 42. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) An employer that wilfully fails 705 to comply with an income-withholding order issued in another state 706 and received for enforcement is subject to the same penalties that may 707 be imposed for noncompliance with an order issued by a tribunal of 708 this state.

709 Sec. 43. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) An obligor may contest the 710 validity or enforcement of an income-withholding order issued in 711 another state and received directly by an employer in this state by 712 registering the order in a tribunal of this state and filing a contest to 713 that order as provided in sections 45 to 60, inclusive, of this act, or 714 otherwise contesting the order in the same manner as if the order had 715 been issued by a tribunal of this state.

716 (b) The obligor shall give notice of the contest to (1) a support 717 enforcement agency providing services to the obligee; (2) each 718 employer that has directly received an income-withholding order 719 relating to the obligor; and (3) the person designated to receive 720 payments in the income-withholding order or, if no person is 721 designated, to the obligee.

722 Sec. 44. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A party or support 723 enforcement agency seeking to enforce a support order or an income-724 withholding order, or both, issued in another state or a foreign support 725 order may send the documents required for registering the order to a 726 support enforcement agency of this state.

727 (b) Upon receipt of the documents, the support enforcement agency, 728 without initially seeking to register the order, shall consider and, if 729 appropriate, use any administrative procedure authorized by the law 730 of this state to enforce a support order or an income-withholding 731 order, or both. If the obligor does not contest administrative 732 enforcement, the order need not be registered. If the obligor contests

733 the validity or administrative enforcement of the order, the support 734 enforcement agency shall register the order pursuant to sections 1 to 735 78, inclusive, of this act.

736 Sec. 45. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A support order or income-737 withholding order issued in another state or a foreign support order 738 may be registered in this state for enforcement.

740 provided in section 66 of this act, a support order or income-741 withholding order of another state or a foreign support order may be 742 registered in this state by sending the following records to the Family 743 Support Magistrate Division of the Superior Court in this state (1) a 744 letter of transmittal to the tribunal requesting registration and 745 enforcement; (2) two copies, including one certified copy, of the order

747 statement by the person requesting registration or a certified statement 748 by the custodian of the records showing the amount of any arrearage; 749 (4) the name of the obligor and, if known (A) the obligor's address and 750 Social Security number; (B) the name and address of the obligor's 751 employer and any other source of income of the obligor; and (C) a 752 description and the location of property of the obligor in this state not 754 section 28 of this act, the name and address of the obligee and, if 755 applicable, the person to whom support payments are to be remitted.

756 (b) On receipt of a request for registration, the registering tribunal 757 shall cause the order to be filed as an order of a tribunal of another 758 state or a foreign support order, together with one copy of the 759 documents and information, regardless of their form.

760 (c) A petition or comparable pleading seeking a remedy that must 761 be affirmatively sought under other law of this state may be filed at the 762 same time as the request for registration or later. The pleading must 763 specify the grounds for the remedy sought.

764 (d) If two or more orders are in effect, the person requesting 765 registration shall (1) furnish to the tribunal a copy of every support 766 order asserted to be in effect in addition to the documents specified in 767 this section; (2) specify the order alleged to be the controlling order, if 768 any; and (3) specify the amount of consolidated arrears, if any.

769 (e) A request for a determination of which is the controlling order 770 may be filed separately or with a request for registration and 771 enforcement or for registration and modification. The person 772 requesting registration shall give notice of the request to each party 773 whose rights may be affected by the determination.

774 Sec. 47. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A support order or income-775 withholding order issued in another state or a foreign support order is 776 registered when the order is filed in the registering tribunal of this 777 state.

778 (b) A registered support order issued in another state or a foreign 779 country is enforceable in the same manner and is subject to the same 780 procedures as an order issued by a tribunal of this state.

781 (c) Except as otherwise provided in sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this 782 act, a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce, but may not 783 modify, a registered support order if the issuing tribunal had 784 jurisdiction.

785 Sec. 48. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise 786 provided in subsection (d) of this section, the law of the issuing state or 787 foreign country governs (1) the nature, extent, amount and duration of 788 current payments under a registered support order; (2) the 789 computation and payment of arrearages and accrual of interest on the 790 arrearages under the support order; and (3) the existence and 791 satisfaction of other obligations under the support order.

792 (b) In a proceeding for arrears under a registered support order, the 793 statute of limitation of this state, or of the issuing state or foreign 794 country, whichever is longer, applies.

795 (c) A responding tribunal of this state shall apply the procedures 796 and remedies of this state to enforce current support and collect arrears 797 and interest due on a support order of another state or a foreign 798 country registered in this state.

799 (d) After a tribunal of this state or another state determines which is 800 the controlling order and issues an order consolidating arrears, if any, 801 a tribunal of this state shall prospectively apply the law of the state or 802 foreign country issuing the controlling order, including its law on 803 interest on arrears, on current and future support, and on consolidated 804 arrears.

805 Sec. 49. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) When a support order or 806 income-withholding order issued in another state or a foreign support 807 order is registered, the registering tribunal of this state shall notify the 808 nonregistering party. The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the 809 registered order and the documents and relevant information 810 accompanying the order.

811 (b) A notice must inform the nonregistering party (1) that a 812 registered support order is enforceable as of the date of registration in 813 the same manner as an order issued by a tribunal of this state; (2) that a 814 hearing to contest the validity or enforcement of the registered order 815 must be requested within twenty days after notice unless the 816 registered order is under section 67 of this act; (3) that failure to contest 817 the validity or enforcement of the registered order in a timely manner 818 will result in confirmation of the order and enforcement of the order 819 and the alleged arrearages; and (4) of the amount of any alleged 820 arrearages.

821 (c) If the registering party asserts that two or more orders are in 822 effect, a notice must also (1) identify the two or more orders and the 823 order alleged by the registering party to be the controlling order and 824 the consolidated arrears, if any; (2) notify the nonregistering party of 825 the right to a determination of which is the controlling order; (3) state 826 that the procedures provided in subsection (b) of this section apply to 827 the determination of which is the controlling order; and (4) state that 828 failure to contest the validity or enforcement of the order alleged to be 829 the controlling order in a timely manner may result in confirmation 830 that the order is the controlling order.

831 (d) Upon registration of an income-withholding order for 832 enforcement, the support enforcement agency or the registering 833 tribunal shall notify the obligor's employer pursuant to section 52-362 834 of the general statutes, as amended by this act.

835 Sec. 50. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A nonregistering party 836 seeking to contest the validity or enforcement of a registered support 837 order in this state shall request a hearing within the time required by 838 section 49 of this act. The nonregistering party may seek to vacate the 839 registration, to assert any defense to an allegation of noncompliance 840 with the registered order, or to contest the remedies being sought or 841 the amount of any alleged arrearages pursuant to section 51 of this act.

842 (b) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the validity or 843 enforcement of the registered support order in a timely manner, the 844 order is confirmed by operation of law.

845 (c) If a nonregistering party requests a hearing to contest the validity 846 or enforcement of the registered support order, the registering tribunal 847 shall schedule the matter for hearing and give notice to the parties of 848 the date, time and place of the hearing.

849 Sec. 51. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A party contesting the 850 validity or enforcement of a registered support order or seeking to 851 vacate the registration has the burden of proving one or more of the 852 following defenses (1) the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction 853 over the contesting party; (2) the order was obtained by fraud; (3) the 854 order has been vacated, suspended or modified by a later order; (4) the 855 issuing tribunal has stayed the order pending appeal; (5) there is a 856 defense under the law of this state to the remedy sought; (6) full or 857 partial payment has been made; (7) the statute of limitations under 858 section 48 of this act precludes enforcement of some or all of the 859 alleged arrearages; or (8) the alleged controlling order is not the 860 controlling order.

861 (b) If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense 862 under subsection (a) of this section, a tribunal may stay enforcement of 863 a registered support order, continue the proceeding to permit 864 production of additional relevant evidence and issue other appropriate 865 orders. An uncontested portion of the registered support order may be 866 enforced by all remedies available under the law of this state.

867 (c) If the contesting party does not establish a defense under 868 subsection (a) of this section to the validity or enforcement of a 869 registered support order, the registering tribunal shall issue an order 870 confirming the order.

871 Sec. 52. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Confirmation of a registered 872 support order, whether by operation of law or after notice and hearing, 873 precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that 874 could have been asserted at the time of registration.

875 Sec. 53. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A party or support
876 enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a 877 child support order issued in another state shall register that order in 878 this state in the same manner provided in sections 45 to 52, inclusive, 879 of this act if the order has not been registered. A motion for 880 modification may be filed at the same time as a request for registration, 881 or later. The pleading must specify the grounds for modification.

883 enforce a child support order of another state registered for purposes 884 of modification, in the same manner as if the order had been issued by 885 a tribunal of this state, but the registered support order may be 886 modified only if the requirements of section 55 or 57 of this act have 887 been met.

888 Sec. 55. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) If section 57 of this act does 889 not apply, upon petition a tribunal of this state may modify a child

890 support order issued in another state which is registered in this state if, 891 after notice and hearing, the tribunal finds that (1) the following 892 requirements are met (A) neither the child, nor the obligee who is an 893 individual, nor the obligor resides in the issuing state; (B) a petitioner 894 who is a nonresident of this state seeks modification; and (C) the 895 respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this 896 state; or (2) this state is the residence of the child, or a party who is an 897 individual is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal of this 898 state, and all of the parties who are individuals have filed consents in a 899 record in the issuing tribunal for a tribunal of this state to modify the 900 support order and assume continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

901 (b) Modification of a registered child support order is subject to the 902 same requirements, procedures and defenses that apply to the 903 modification of an order issued by a tribunal of this state and the order 904 may be enforced and satisfied in the same manner.

905 (c) A tribunal of this state may not modify any aspect of a child 906 support order that may not be modified under the law of the issuing 907 state, including the duration of the obligation of support. If two or 908 more tribunals have issued child support orders for the same obligor 909 and same child, the order that controls and must be so recognized 910 under section 12 of this act establishes the aspects of the support order 911 which are nonmodifiable.

912 (d) In a proceeding to modify a child support order, the law of the 913 state that is determined to have issued the initial controlling order 914 governs the duration of the obligation of support. The obligor's 915 fulfillment of the duty of support established by that order precludes 916 imposition of a further obligation of support by a tribunal of this state.

917 (e) On the issuance of an order by a tribunal of this state modifying 918 a child support order issued in another state, the tribunal of this state 919 becomes the tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

920 (f) Notwithstanding subsections (a) to (e), inclusive, of this section 921 and subsection (b) of section 6 of this act, a tribunal of this state retains

922 jurisdiction to modify an order issued by a tribunal of this state if (1) 923 one party resides in another state; and (2) the other party resides 924 outside the United States.

925       Sec. 56. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If a child support order issued 926 by a tribunal of this state is modified by a tribunal of another state 927 which assumed jurisdiction pursuant to the Uniform Interstate Family 928 Support Act, a tribunal of this state (1) may enforce its order that was 929 modified only as to arrears and interest accruing before the 930 modification; (2) may provide appropriate relief for violations of its 931 order which occurred before the effective date of the modification; and 932 (3) shall recognize the modifying order of the other state, upon 933 registration, for the purpose of enforcement.

934       Sec. 57. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) If all of the parties who are 935 individuals reside in this state and the child does not reside in the 936 issuing state, a tribunal of this state has jurisdiction to enforce and to 937 modify the issuing state's child support order in a proceeding to 938 register that order.

939       (b) A tribunal of this state exercising jurisdiction under this section 940 shall apply the provisions of sections 1 to 16, inclusive, of this act, 941 sections 45 to 60, inclusive, of this act, and the procedural and 942 substantive law of this state to the proceeding for enforcement or 943 modification. Sections 17 to 44, inclusive, of this act and sections 61 to 944 75, inclusive, of this act do not apply.

945       Sec. 58. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Within thirty days after 946 issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the 947 modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing 948 tribunal that had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier 949 order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows the earlier order 950 has been registered. A party who obtains the order and fails to file a 951 certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which 952 the issue of failure to file arises. The failure to file does not affect the 953 validity or enforceability of the modified order of the new tribunal

954 having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

955 Sec. 59. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise 956 provided in section 71 of this act, if a foreign country lacks or refuses 957 to exercise jurisdiction to modify its child support order pursuant to its 958 laws, a tribunal of this state may assume jurisdiction to modify the 959 child support order and bind all individuals subject to the personal 960 jurisdiction of the tribunal whether the consent to modification of a 961 child support order otherwise required of the individual pursuant to 962 section 55 of this act has been given or whether the individual seeking 963 modification is a resident of this state or of the foreign country.

964 (b) An order issued by a tribunal of this state modifying a foreign 965 child support order pursuant to this section is the controlling order.

966 Sec. 60. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A party or support
967 enforcement agency seeking to modify, or to modify and enforce, a 968 foreign child support order not under the Convention may register 969 that order in this state under sections 45 to 52, inclusive, of this act if 970 the order has not been registered. A motion for modification may be 971 filed at the same time as a request for registration, or at another time.
972 The motion must specify the grounds for modification.

973 Sec. 61. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) As used in this section and 974 sections 62 to 73, inclusive, of this act:

975 (1) "Application" means a request under the Convention by an 976 obligee or obligor, or on behalf of a child, made through a central 977 authority for assistance from another central authority.

978 (2) "Central authority" means the entity designated by the United 979 States or a foreign country to perform the functions specified in the 980 Convention.

981 (3) "Convention support order" means a support order of a tribunal 982 of a foreign country.

983 (4) "Direct request" means a petition filed by an individual in a

984 tribunal of this state in a proceeding involving an obligee, obligor or 985 child residing outside the United States.

986 (5) "Foreign support agreement" means (A) an agreement for 987 support in a record that (i) is enforceable as a support order in the 988 country of origin; (ii) has been (I) formally drawn up or registered as 989 an authentic instrument by a foreign tribunal; or (II) authenticated by, 990 or concluded, registered or filed with a foreign tribunal; and (iii) may 991 be reviewed and modified by a foreign tribunal; and (B) a maintenance 992 arrangement or authentic instrument under the Convention.

993 (6) "United States central authority" means the Secretary of the 994 United States Department of Health and Human Services.

995 Sec. 62. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of 996 this act apply only to a support proceeding under the Convention. In 997 such a proceeding, if a provision of sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this 998 act is inconsistent with sections 1 to 60, inclusive, of this act, sections 61 999 to 73, inclusive, of this act, control.

1000 Sec. 63. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) The IV-D agency of this state is 1001 recognized as the agency designated by the United States central 1002 authority to perform specific functions under the Convention.

1003 Sec. 64. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) In a support proceeding 1004 under sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act, the IV-D agency of this 1005 state shall (1) transmit and receive applications; and (2) initiate or 1006 facilitate the institution of a proceeding regarding an application in a 1007 tribunal of this state.

1008 (b) The following support proceedings are available to an obligee
1009 under the Convention (1) recognition or recognition and enforcement 1010 of a foreign support order; (2) enforcement of a support order issued or 1011 recognized in this state; (3) establishment of a support order if there is 1012 no existing order, including, if necessary, determination of parentage 1013 of a child; (4) establishment of a support order if recognition of a 1014 foreign support order is refused under subdivisions (2), (4) or (9) of 1015 subsection (b) of section 68 of this act; (5) modification of a support 1016 order of a tribunal of this state; and (6) modification of a support order 1017 of a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

1018 (c) The following support proceedings are available under the 1019 Convention to an obligor against which there is an existing support 1020 order (1) recognition of an order suspending or limiting enforcement 1021 of an existing support order of a tribunal of this state; (2) modification 1022 of a support order of a tribunal of this state; and (3) modification of a 1023 support order of a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

1024 (d) A tribunal of this state may not require security, bond, or 1025 deposit, however described, to guarantee the payment of costs and 1026 expenses in proceedings under the Convention.

1027 Sec. 65. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A petitioner may file a 1028 direct request seeking establishment or modification of a support order 1029 or determination of parentage of a child. In the proceeding, the law of 1030 this state applies.

1031 (b) A petitioner may file a direct request seeking recognition and 1032 enforcement of a support order or support agreement. In the 1033 proceeding, sections 66 to 73, inclusive, of this act, apply.

1034 (c) In a direct request for recognition and enforcement of a 1035 Convention support order or foreign support agreement (1) a security, 1036 bond, or deposit is not required to guarantee the payment of costs and 1037 expenses; and (2) an obligee or obligor that in the issuing country has 1038 benefited from free legal assistance is entitled to benefit, at least to the 1039 same extent, from any free legal assistance provided for by the law of 1040 this state under the same circumstances.

1041 (d) A petitioner filing a direct request is not entitled to assistance 1042 from the IV-D agency.

1043 (e) Sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act do not prevent the 1044 application of laws of this state that provide simplified, more

1045 expeditious rules regarding a direct request for recognition and 1046 enforcement of a foreign support order or foreign support agreement.

1048 provided in sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act, a party who is an 1049 individual or a support enforcement agency seeking recognition of a 1050 Convention support order shall register the order in this state as 1051 provided in sections 45 to 60, inclusive, of this act.

1052 (b) Notwithstanding section 27 of this act and subsection (a) of 1053 section 46 of this act, a request for registration of a Convention support 1054 order must be accompanied by (1) a complete text of the support order; 1055 (2) a record stating that the support order is enforceable in the issuing 1056 country; (3) if the respondent did not appear and was not represented 1057 in the proceedings in the issuing country, a record attesting, as 1058 appropriate, either that the respondent had proper notice of the 1059 proceedings and an opportunity to be heard or that the respondent 1060 had proper notice of the support order and an opportunity to be heard 1061 in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal; (4) a record 1062 showing the amount of arrears, if any, and the date the amount was 1063 calculated; (5) a record showing a requirement for automatic 1064 adjustment of the amount of support, if any, and the information 1065 necessary to make the appropriate calculations; and (6) if necessary, a 1066 record showing the extent to which the applicant received free legal 1067 assistance in the issuing country.

1068 (c) A request for registration of a Convention support order may 1069 seek recognition and partial enforcement of the order.

1070 (d) A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of a 1071 Convention support order without the filing of a contest under section 1072 67 of this act only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that 1073 recognition and enforcement of the order would be manifestly 1074 incompatible with public policy.

1075 (e) The tribunal shall promptly notify the parties of the registration 1076 or the order vacating the registration of a Convention support order.

1077 Sec. 67. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise
1078 provided in sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act, sections 49 to 52, 1079 inclusive, of this act, apply to a contest of a registered Convention 1080 support order.

1081 (b) A party contesting a registered Convention support order shall 1082 file a contest not later than thirty days after notice of the registration, 1083 but if the contesting party does not reside in the United States, the 1084 contest must be filed not later than sixty days after notice of the 1085 registration.

1086 (c) If the nonregistering party fails to contest the registered 1087 Convention support order by the time specified in subsection (b) of 1088 this section, the order is enforceable.

1089 (d) A contest of a registered Convention support order may be 1090 based only on grounds set forth in section 68 of this act. The contesting 1091 party bears the burden of proof.

1092 (e) In a contest of a registered Convention support order, a tribunal 1093 of this state (1) is bound by the findings of fact on which the foreign 1094 tribunal based its jurisdiction; and (2) may not review the merits of the 1095 order.

1096 (f) A tribunal of this state deciding a contest of a registered 1097 Convention support order shall promptly notify the parties of its 1098 decision.

1099 (g) A challenge or appeal, if any, does not stay the enforcement of a 1100 Convention support order unless there are exceptional circumstances.

1101 Sec. 68. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise 1102 provided in subsection (b) of this section, a tribunal of this state shall 1103 recognize and enforce a registered Convention support order.

1104 (b) The following grounds are the only grounds on which a tribunal 1105 of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered 1106 Convention support order (1) recognition and enforcement of the order

1107 is manifestly incompatible with public policy, including the failure of 1108 the issuing tribunal to observe minimum standards of due process, 1109 which include notice and an opportunity to be heard; (2) the issuing 1110 tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction consistent with section 6 of this 1111 act; (3) the order is not enforceable in the issuing country; (4) the order 1112 was obtained by fraud in connection with a matter of procedure; (5) a 1113 record transmitted in accordance with section 66 of this act lacks 1114 authenticity or integrity; (6) a proceeding between the same parties 1115 and having the same purpose is pending before a tribunal of this state 1116 and that proceeding was the first to be filed; (7) the order is 1117 incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same 1118 parties and having the same purpose if the more recent support order 1119 is entitled to recognition and enforcement under sections 1 to 78, 1120 inclusive, of this act in this state; (8) payment, to the extent alleged 1121 arrears have been paid in whole or in part; (9) in a case in which the 1122 respondent neither appeared nor was represented in the proceeding in 1123 the issuing foreign country (A) if the law of that country provides for 1124 prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice 1125 of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard; or (B) if the law of 1126 that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings, the 1127 respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity 1128 to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal; or 1129 (10) the order was made in violation of section 71 of this act.

1130 (c) If a tribunal of this state does not recognize a Convention 1131 support order under subdivision (2), (4) or (9) of subsection (b) of this 1132 section (1) the tribunal may not dismiss the proceeding without 1133 allowing a reasonable time for a party to request the establishment of a 1134 new Convention support order; and (2) the IV-D agency shall take all 1135 appropriate measures to request a child support order for the obligee if 1136 the application for recognition and enforcement was received under 1137 section 64 of this act.

1138 Sec. 69. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If a tribunal of this state does 1139 not recognize and enforce a Convention support order in its entirety, it 1140 shall enforce any severable part of the order. An application or direct

1141 request may seek recognition and partial enforcement of a Convention 1142 support order.

1143 Sec. 70. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Except as otherwise 1144 provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, a tribunal of this 1145 state shall recognize and enforce a foreign support agreement 1146 registered in this state.

1147 (b) An application or direct request for recognition and enforcement 1148 of a foreign support agreement must be accompanied by (1) a complete 1149 text of the foreign support agreement; and (2) a record stating that the 1150 foreign support agreement is enforceable as an order of support in the 1151 issuing country.

1152 (c) A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of a foreign 1153 support agreement only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds 1154 that recognition and enforcement would be manifestly incompatible 1155 with public policy.

1156 (d) In a contest of a foreign support agreement, a tribunal of this 1157 state may refuse recognition and enforcement of the agreement if it 1158 finds (1) recognition and enforcement of the agreement is manifestly 1159 incompatible with public policy; (2) the agreement was obtained by 1160 fraud or falsification; (3) the agreement is incompatible with a support 1161 order involving the same parties and having the same purpose in this 1162 state, another state, or a foreign country if the support order is entitled 1163 to recognition and enforcement under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this 1164 act in this state; or (4) the record submitted under subsection (b) of this 1165 section lacks authenticity or integrity.

1166 (e) A proceeding for recognition and enforcement of a foreign 1167 support agreement must be suspended during the pendency of a 1168 challenge to or appeal of the agreement before a tribunal of another 1169 state or a foreign country.

1170 Sec. 71. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) A tribunal of this state may 1171 not modify a Convention child support order if the obligee remains a 1172 resident of the foreign country where the support order was issued 1173 unless (1) the obligee submits to the jurisdiction of a tribunal of this 1174 state, either expressly or by defending on the merits of the case 1175 without objecting to the jurisdiction at the first available opportunity; 1176 or (2) the foreign tribunal lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to 1177 modify its support order or issue a new support order.

1178 (b) If a tribunal of this state does not modify a Convention child 1179 support order because the order is not recognized in this state, 1180 subsection (c) of section 68 of this act applies.

1181 Sec. 72. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Personal information gathered 1182 or transmitted under sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act may be 1183 used only for the purposes for which it was gathered or transmitted.

1184 Sec. 73. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) A record filed with a tribunal 1185 of this state under sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act must be in the 1186 original language and, if not in English, must be accompanied by an 1187 English translation.

1188 Sec. 74. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) For purposes of sections 74 1189 and 75 of this act, "governor" includes an individual performing the 1190 functions of governor or the executive authority of a state covered by 1191 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

1192 (b) The governor of this state may (1) demand that the governor of 1193 another state surrender an individual found in the other state who is 1194 charged criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the 1195 support of an obligee; or (2) on the demand of the governor of another 1196 state, surrender an individual found in this state who is charged 1197 criminally in the other state with having failed to provide for the 1198 support of an obligee.

1199 (c) A provision for extradition of individuals not inconsistent with 1200 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act applies to the demand even if the 1201 individual whose surrender is demanded was not in the demanding 1202 state when the crime was allegedly committed and has not fled

1203 therefrom.

1204 Sec. 75. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) (a) Before making a demand 1205 that the governor of another state surrender an individual charged 1206 criminally in this state with having failed to provide for the support of 1207 an obligee, the governor of this state may require a prosecutor of this 1208 state to demonstrate that at least sixty days previously the obligee had 1209 initiated proceedings for support pursuant to sections 1 to 78, 1210 inclusive, of this act or that the proceeding would be of no avail.

1211 (b) If, under sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act or a law 1212 substantially similar to sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, the 1213 governor of another state makes a demand that the governor of this 1214 state surrender an individual charged criminally in that state with 1215 having failed to provide for the support of a child or other individual 1216 to whom a duty of support is owed, the governor may require a 1217 prosecutor to investigate the demand and report whether a proceeding 1218 for support has been initiated or would be effective. If it appears that a 1219 proceeding would be effective but has not been initiated, the governor 1220 may delay honoring the demand for a reasonable time to permit the 1221 initiation of a proceeding.

1222 (c) If a proceeding for support has been initiated and the individual 1223 whose rendition is demanded prevails, the governor may decline to 1224 honor the demand. If the petitioner prevails and the individual whose 1225 rendition is demanded is subject to a support order, the governor may 1226 decline to honor the demand if the individual is complying with the 1227 support order.

1228 Sec. 76. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) In applying and construing 1229 sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, consideration must be given to 1230 the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject 1231 matter among states that enact it.

1232 Sec. 77. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) Sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of 1233 this act apply to proceedings begun on or after July 1, 2015, to establish 1234 a support order or determine parentage of a child or to register,

1235 recognize, enforce or modify a prior support order, determination, or 1236 agreement, whenever issued or entered.

1237 Sec. 78. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2015) If any provision of sections 1 to 1238 78, inclusive, of this act or their application to any person or 1239 circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other 1240 provisions or applications of sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act 1241 which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
1242 To this end the provisions of sections 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act are 1243 severable.

1244 Sec. 79. Subsection (b) of section 17b-745 of the general statutes is 1245 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1246 1, 2015):

1247 (b) Except as provided in sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, 1248 inclusive, of this act any court or family support magistrate, called 1249 upon to enforce a support order, shall insure that such order is 1250 reasonable in light of the obligor's ability to pay. Except as provided in 1251 sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act any support 1252 order entered pursuant to this section, or any support order from 1253 another jurisdiction subject to enforcement by the state of Connecticut, 1254 may be modified by motion of the party seeking such modification, 1255 including Support Enforcement Services in IV-D support cases, as 1256 defined in subdivision (13) of subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as 1257 amended by this act, upon a showing of a substantial change in the 1258 circumstances of either party or upon a showing that the final order for 1259 child support substantially deviates from the child support guidelines 1260 established pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless there was a specific 1261 finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be 1262 inequitable or inappropriate, provided the court or family support 1263 magistrate finds that the obligor or the obligee and any other 1264 interested party have received actual notice of the pendency of such 1265 motion and of the time and place of the hearing on such motion. There 1266 shall be a rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than fifteen 1267 per cent from the child support guidelines is not substantial and any

1269 Modification may be made of such support order without regard to 1270 whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991. In any 1271 hearing to modify any support order from another jurisdiction the 1272 court or the family support magistrate shall conduct the proceedings in 1273 accordance with sections [46b-213o to 46b-213r] 53 to 59, inclusive, of 1274 this act. No such support orders may be subject to retroactive 1275 modification except that the court or family support magistrate may 1276 order modification with respect to any period during which there is a 1277 pending motion for a modification of an existing support order from 1278 the date of service of notice of such pending motion upon the opposing 1279 party pursuant to section 52-50.

1280 Sec. 80. Subdivision (4) of subsection (b) of section 46b-56c of the 1281 general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu 1282 thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1283 (4) On motion or petition of a parent, the court may enter an 1284 educational support order at the time of entering an order pursuant to 1285 any other provision of the general statutes authorizing the court to 1286 make an order of support for a child, subject to the provisions of 1287 sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

1288 Sec. 81. Section 46b-62 of the general statutes is repealed and the 1289 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1290 (a) In any proceeding seeking relief under the provisions of this 1291 chapter and sections 17b-743, 17b-744, 45a-257, 46b-1, 46b-6, [46b-212 1292 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, 47-14g, 51-348a and 52-362, 1293 as amended by this act, the court may order either spouse or, if such 1294 proceeding concerns the custody, care, education, visitation or support 1295 of a minor child, either parent to pay the reasonable attorney's fees of 1296 the other in accordance with their respective financial abilities and the 1297 criteria set forth in section 46b-82. If, in any proceeding under this 1298 chapter and said sections, the court appoints counsel or a guardian ad 1299 litem for a minor child, the court may order the father, mother or an 1300 intervening party, individually or in any combination, to pay the 1301 reasonable fees of such counsel or guardian ad litem or may order the 1302 payment of such counsel's or guardian ad litem's fees in whole or in 1303 part from the estate of the child. If the child is receiving or has received 1304 state aid or care, the compensation of such counsel or guardian ad 1305 litem shall be established and paid by the Public Defender Services 1306 Commission.

1307 (b) If, in any proceeding under this chapter and sections 17b-743, 1308 17b-744, 45a-257, 46b-1, 46b-6, [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, 1309 of this act, 47-14g, 51-348a and 52-362, as amended by this act, the 1310 court appoints counsel or a guardian ad litem for a minor child, the 1311 court may not order the father, mother or an intervening party, 1312 individually or in any combination, to pay the reasonable fees of such 1313 counsel or guardian ad litem from a college savings account, including 1314 any account established pursuant to any qualified tuition program, as 1315 defined in Section 529(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, that has been 1316 established for the benefit of the minor child. If the court determines 1317 that the father, mother or an intervening party does not have the 1318 ability to pay such reasonable fees, the court shall not order that such 1319 reasonable fees be paid by such persons through the use of a credit 1320 card. In addition, any order for the payment of such reasonable fees 1321 shall be limited to income or assets that are not exempt property under 1322 sections 52-352a and 52-352b.

1323 (c) In any proceeding under this chapter and sections 17b-743, 17b-1324 744, 45a-257, 46b-1, 46b-6, [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of 1325 this act, 47-14g, 51-348a and 52-362, as amended by this act, in which 1326 the court appoints counsel or a guardian ad litem for a minor child, the 1327 court may order that the fees to be paid to such counsel or guardian ad 1328 litem be calculated on a sliding-scale basis after giving due 1329 consideration to the income and assets of the parties to the proceeding.

1330 (d) The Judicial Branch shall develop and implement a methodology 1331 for calculating, on a sliding-scale basis, the fees owing to counsel or a 1332 guardian ad litem for a minor child appointed in any proceeding

1333 under this chapter and sections 17b-743, 17b-744, 45a-257, 46b-1, 46b-6, 1334 [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, 47-14g, 51-348a and 1335 52-362, as amended by this act.

1336 Sec. 82. Subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 46b-160 of the
1338 thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1339 (2) The verified petition, summons and order shall be filed in the 1340 superior court for the judicial district in which either she or the 1341 putative father resides, except that in IV-D support cases, as defined in 1342 subdivision (13) of subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by 1343 this act, and in petitions brought under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1344 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, such petition shall be filed with the clerk
1345 for the Family Support Magistrate Division serving the judicial district 1346 where either she or the putative father resides.

1347 Sec. 83. Subsection (a) of section 46b-168a of the general statutes is 1348 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1349 1, 2015):

1350 (a) In any IV-D support case, as defined in subdivision (13) of 1351 subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by this act, in which the 1352 paternity of a child is at issue, or in any case in which a support 1353 enforcement agency is providing services to a petitioner in a 1354 proceeding under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of 1355 this act, in which the paternity of a child is at issue, the IV-D agency or 1356 the support enforcement agency shall require the child and all other 1357 parties other than individuals who have good cause for refusing to 1358 cooperate or who are subject to other exceptions to submit to genetic 1359 tests which shall mean deoxyribonucleic acid tests, to be performed by 1360 a hospital, accredited laboratory, qualified physician or other qualified 1361 person designated by such agency, to determine whether or not the 1362 putative father or husband is the father of the child, upon the request 1363 of any such party, provided such request is supported by a sworn 1364 statement by the party which either (1) alleges paternity and sets forth

1365 facts establishing a reasonable possibility of the requisite sexual 1366 contact between the parties, or (2) denies paternity and sets forth facts 1367 establishing a reasonable possibility of the nonexistence of sexual 1368 contact between the parties.

1370 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1371 No petition under section 46b-160, as amended by this act, shall be 1372 withdrawn except upon approval of a judge or in IV-D support cases 1373 as defined in subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by this act, 1374 and petitions brought under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, 1375 inclusive, of this act, the family support magistrate assigned to the 1376 judicial district in which the petition was brought. Any agreement of 1377 settlement, before or after a petition has been brought, other than an 1378 agreement made under the provisions of section 46b-172, as amended 1379 by this act, between the mother and putative father shall take effect 1380 only upon approval of the terms thereof by a judge of the Superior 1381 Court, or family support magistrate assigned to the judicial district in 1382 which the mother or the putative father resides and, in the case of 1383 children supported by the state or the town, on the approval of the 1384 Commissioner of Social Services or the Attorney General. When so 1385 approved, such agreements shall be binding upon all persons 1386 executing them, whether such person is a minor or an adult.

1388 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1389 (a) (1) In lieu of or in conclusion of proceedings under section 1390 46b-160, as amended by this act, a written acknowledgment of 1391 paternity executed and sworn to by the putative father of the child 1392 when accompanied by (A) an attested waiver of the right to a blood 1393 test, the right to a trial and the right to an attorney, (B) a written 1394 affirmation of paternity executed and sworn to by the mother of the 1395 child, and (C) if the person subject to the acknowledgment of paternity 1396 is an adult eighteen years of age or older, a notarized affidavit

1397 affirming consent to the voluntary acknowledgment of paternity, shall 1398 have the same force and effect as a judgment of the Superior Court. It 1399 shall be considered a legal finding of paternity without requiring or 1400 permitting judicial ratification, and shall be binding on the person 1401 executing the same whether such person is an adult or a minor, subject 1402 to subdivision (2) of this subsection. Such acknowledgment shall not 1403 be binding unless, prior to the signing of any affirmation or 1404 acknowledgment of paternity, the mother and the putative father are 1405 given oral and written notice of the alternatives to, the legal 1406 consequences of, and the rights and responsibilities that arise from 1407 signing such affirmation or acknowledgment. The notice to the mother 1408 shall include, but shall not be limited to, notice that the affirmation of 1409 paternity may result in rights of custody and visitation, as well as a 1410 duty of support, in the person named as father. The notice to the 1411 putative father shall include, but not be limited to, notice that such 1412 father has the right to contest paternity, including the right to 1413 appointment of counsel, a genetic test to determine paternity and a 1414 trial by the Superior Court or a family support magistrate and that 1415 acknowledgment of paternity will make such father liable for the 1416 financial support of the child until the child's eighteenth birthday. In 1417 addition, the notice shall inform the mother and the father that DNA 1418 testing may be able to establish paternity with a high degree of 1419 accuracy and may, under certain circumstances, be available at state 1420 expense. The notices shall also explain the right to rescind the 1421 acknowledgment, as set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection, 1422 including the address where such notice of rescission should be sent, 1423 and shall explain that the acknowledgment cannot be challenged after 1424 sixty days, except in court upon a showing of fraud, duress or material 1425 mistake of fact.

1426 (2) The mother and the acknowledged father shall have the right to 1427 rescind such affirmation or acknowledgment in writing within the 1428 earlier of (A) sixty days, or (B) the date of an agreement to support 1429 such child approved in accordance with subsection (b) of this section 1430 or an order of support for such child entered in a proceeding under 1431 subsection (c) of this section. An acknowledgment executed in 1432 accordance with subdivision (1) of this subsection may be challenged 1433 in court or before a family support magistrate after the rescission 1434 period only on the basis of fraud, duress or material mistake of fact 1435 which may include evidence that he is not the father, with the burden 1436 of proof upon the challenger. During the pendency of any such 1437 challenge, any responsibilities arising from such acknowledgment 1438 shall continue except for good cause shown.

1439 (3) All written notices, waivers, affirmations and acknowledgments 1440 required under subdivision (1) of this subsection, and rescissions 1441 authorized under subdivision (2) of this subsection, shall be on forms 1442 prescribed by the Department of Public Health, provided such 1443 acknowledgment form includes the minimum requirements specified 1444 by the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and 1445 Human Services. All acknowledgments and rescissions executed in 1446 accordance with this subsection shall be filed in the paternity registry 1447 established and maintained by the Department of Public Health under 1448 section 19a-42a.

1449 (4) An acknowledgment of paternity signed in any other state 1450 according to its procedures shall be given full faith and credit by this 1451 state.

1452 (b) (1) An agreement to support the child by payment of a periodic 1453 sum until the child attains the age of eighteen years or as otherwise 1454 provided in this subsection, together with provisions for 1455 reimbursement for past-due support based upon ability to pay in 1456 accordance with the provisions of section 17a-90 or 17b-81, subsection 1457 (b) of section 17b-179 or section 17b-223, 46b-129 or 46b-130, and 1458 reasonable expense of prosecution of the petition, when filed with and 1459 approved by a judge of the Superior Court, or in IV-D support cases 1460 and matters brought under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, 1461 inclusive, of this act, a family support magistrate at any time, shall 1462 have the same force and effect, retroactively or prospectively in 1463 accordance with the terms of the agreement, as an order of support

1464 entered by the court, and shall be enforceable and subject to 1465 modification in the same manner as is provided by law for orders of 1466 the court in such cases. If such child is unmarried and a full-time high 1467 school student, such support shall continue according to the parents' 1468 respective abilities to pay, if such child is in need of support, until such 1469 child completes the twelfth grade or attains the age of nineteen,
1470 whichever occurs first.

1471 (2) Past-due support in such cases shall be limited to the three years 1472 next preceding the date of the filing of such agreements to support.

1473 (3) Payments under such agreement shall be made to the petitioner, 1474 except that in IV-D support cases, as defined in subsection (b) of 1475 section 46b-231, as amended by this act, payments shall be made to the 1476 Bureau of Child Support Enforcement or its designated agency and 1477 distributed as required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. In IV-D 1478 support cases, the IV-D agency or a support enforcement agency under 1479 cooperative agreement with the IV-D agency may, upon notice to the 1480 obligor and obligee, redirect payments for the support of any child 1481 receiving child support enforcement services either to the state of 1482 Connecticut or to the present custodial party, as their interests may 1483 appear, provided neither the obligor nor the obligee objects in writing 1484 within ten business days from the mailing date of such notice. Any 1485 such notice shall be sent by first class mail to the most recent address 1486 of such obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state case registry 1487 pursuant to section 46b-218, and a copy of such notice shall be filed 1488 with the court or family support magistrate if both the obligor and 1489 obligee fail to object to the redirected payments within ten business 1490 days from the mailing date of such notice.

1491 (4) Such written agreements to support shall be sworn to, and shall 1492 be binding on the person executing the same whether he is an adult or 1493 a minor.

1494 (c) (1) At any time after the signing of any acknowledgment of 1495 paternity, upon the application of any interested party, the court or

1496 any judge thereof or any family support magistrate in IV-D support 1497 cases and in matters brought under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 1498 78, inclusive, of this act, shall cause a summons, signed by such judge 1499 or family support magistrate, by the clerk of the court or by a 1500 commissioner of the Superior Court, to be issued, requiring the 1501 acknowledged father to appear in court at a time and place as 1502 determined by the clerk but not more than ninety days after the 1503 issuance of the summons, to show cause why the court or the family
1504 support magistrate assigned to the judicial district in IV-D support 1505 cases should not enter judgment for support of the child by payment of 1506 a periodic sum until the child attains the age of eighteen years or as 1507 otherwise provided in this subsection, together with provision for 1508 reimbursement for past-due support based upon ability to pay in 1509 accordance with the provisions of section 17a-90 or 17b-81, subsection 1510 (b) of section 17b-179 or section 17b-223, 46b-129 or 46b-130, a 1511 provision for health coverage of the child as required by section 46b-1512 215, as amended by this act, and reasonable expense of the action 1513 under this subsection. If such child is unmarried and a full-time high 1514 school student such support shall continue according to the parents' 1515 respective abilities to pay, if such child is in need of support, until such 1516 child completes the twelfth grade or attains the age of nineteen, 1517 whichever occurs first.

1519 next preceding the filing of a petition pursuant to this section. Such 1520 court or family support magistrate, in IV-D support cases, may also 1521 order the acknowledged father who is subject to a plan for 1522 reimbursement of past-due support and is not incapacitated to 1523 participate in work activities which may include, but shall not be 1524 limited to, job search, training, work experience and participation in 1525 the job training and retraining program established by the Labor
1526 Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t.

1527 (3) Proceedings to obtain such orders of support shall be 1528 commenced by the service of such summons on the acknowledged 1529 father. A state marshal or proper officer shall make due return of 1530 process to the court not less than twenty-one days before the date 1531 assigned for hearing.

1532 (4) The prior judgment as to paternity shall be res judicata as to that 1533 issue for all paternity acknowledgments filed with the court on or after 1534 March 1, 1981, but before July 1, 1997, and shall not be reconsidered by 1535 the court unless the person seeking review of the acknowledgment 1536 petitions the superior court for the judicial district having venue for a 1537 hearing on the issue of paternity within three years of such judgment.
1538 In addition to such review, if the acknowledgment of paternity was 1539 filed prior to March 1, 1981, the acknowledgment of paternity may be 1540 reviewed by denying the allegation of paternity in response to the 1541 initial petition for support, whenever it is filed.

1542 (5) All payments under this subsection shall be made to the 1543 petitioner, except that in IV-D support cases, as defined in subsection 1544 (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by this act, payments shall be made 1545 to the state, acting by and through the IV-D agency and distributed as 1546 required by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. In IV-D support cases, 1547 the IV-D agency or a support enforcement agency under cooperative 1548 agreement with the IV-D agency may, upon notice to the obligor and 1549 obligee, redirect payments for the support of any child receiving child 1550 support enforcement services either to the state of Connecticut or to 1551 the present custodial party, as their interests may appear, provided 1552 neither the obligor nor the obligee objects in writing within ten 1553 business days from the mailing date of such notice. Any such notice 1554 shall be sent by first class mail to the most recent address of such 1555 obligor and obligee, as recorded in the state case registry pursuant to 1556 section 46b-218, and a copy of such notice shall be filed with the court 1557 or family support magistrate if both the obligor and obligee fail to 1558 object to the redirected payments within ten business days from the 1559 mailing date of such notice.

1560 (d) Whenever a petition is filed for review of an acknowledgment of 1561 paternity of a child who is or has been supported by the state, and 1562 review of such acknowledgment of paternity is granted by the court

1563 pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, and upon review, the court or 1564 family support magistrate finds that the petitioner is not the father of 1565 the child, the Department of Social Services shall refund to the 1566 petitioner any money paid by the petitioner to the state during any 1567 period such child was supported by the state.

1568 (e) In IV-D support cases, as defined in subdivision (13) of 1569 subsection (b) of section 46b-231, as amended by this act, a copy of any 1570 support order established pursuant to this section shall be provided to 1571 each party and the state case registry within fourteen days after 1572 issuance of such order or determination.

1574 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1575 The court is authorized to establish and maintain Support 1576 Enforcement Services and such offices thereof as it determines are 1577 necessary for the proper handling of the administrative details incident 1578 to proceedings under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, 1579 of this act, and may appoint such personnel as necessary for the proper 1580 administration of the nonjudicial functions of proceedings under 1581 sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act.

1583 following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2015):

1584 The support service investigators of Support Enforcement Services 1585 of the Superior Court shall, while acting within the scope of their 1586 duties as such, pursuant to matters under sections [46b-212 to 46b-1587 213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, have the powers of service and of 1588 execution of summons and orders for withholding, and the conduct of 1589 investigations.

1590 Sec. 88. Subsection (e) of section 46b-215 of the general statutes is
1592 1, 2015):

1593 (e) Except as provided in sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, 1594 inclusive, of this act, any court or family support magistrate, called 1595 upon to enforce a support order, shall insure that such order is 1596 reasonable in light of the obligor's ability to pay. Except as provided in 1597 sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, any 1598 support order entered pursuant to this section, or any support order 1599 from another jurisdiction subject to enforcement by the state of 1600 Connecticut, may be modified by motion of the party seeking such 1601 modification upon a showing of a substantial change in the 1602 circumstances of either party or upon a showing that such support 1603 order substantially deviates from the child support guidelines 1604 established pursuant to section 46b-215a, unless there was a specific 1605 finding on the record that the application of the guidelines would be 1606 inequitable or inappropriate, provided the court or family support 1607 magistrate finds that the obligor or the obligee and any other 1608 interested party have received actual notice of the pendency of such
1610 shall be a rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than fifteen 1611 per cent from the child support guidelines is not substantial and any 1612 deviation of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is substantial.
1613 Modification may be made of such support order without regard to 1614 whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991. No such 1615 support orders may be subject to retroactive modification, except that 1616 the court or family support magistrate may order modification with 1617 respect to any period during which there is a pending motion for a 1618 modification of an existing support order from the date of service of 1619 the notice of such pending motion upon the opposing party pursuant 1620 to section 52-50. In any hearing to modify any support order from 1621 another jurisdiction the court or the family support magistrate shall 1622 conduct the proceedings in accordance with sections [46b-213o to 46b-1623 213r] 53 to 56, inclusive, of this act.

1744 all hearings before the family support magistrate by contract or 1745 otherwise.

1746 (l) The judges of the Superior Court shall adopt rules of procedure 1747 in accordance with the provisions of section 51-14 for the handling by 1753 magistrates shall have the powers and duties enumerated in this 1754 subsection.

1755 (1) A family support magistrate in IV-D support cases may compel

1757 pursuant to section 17b-745, as amended by this act, 46b-172, as 1758 amended by this act, or 46b-215, as amended by this act, a subpoena 1759 issued pursuant to section 52-143, or a citation for failure to obey an 1760 order of a family support magistrate or a judge of the Superior Court.
1761 If a person is served with any such summons, subpoena or citation 1762 issued by a family support magistrate or the assistant clerk of the 1763 Family Support Magistrate Division and fails to appear, a family 1764 support magistrate may issue a capias mittimus directed to a judicial 1765 marshal to the extent authorized pursuant to section 46b-225, or any 1766 other proper officer to arrest the obligor or the witness and bring the 1767 obligor or witness before a family support magistrate. Whenever such 1768 a capias mittimus is ordered, the family support magistrate shall 1769 establish a recognizance to the state of Connecticut in the form of a 1770 bond of such character and amount as to assure the appearance of the 1771 obligor at the next regular session of the Family Support Magistrate 1772 Division in the judicial district in which the matter is pending. If the 1773 obligor posts such a bond, and thereafter fails to appear before the 1774 family support magistrate at the time and place the obligor is ordered 1775 to appear, the family support magistrate may order the bond forfeited, 1776 and the proceeds thereof distributed as required by Title IV-D of the 1777 Social Security Act.

1778 (2) (A) Family support magistrates shall hear and determine matters 1779 involving child and spousal support in IV-D support cases including 1780 petitions for support brought pursuant to sections 17b-81, 17b-179, 1781 17b-745, as amended by this act, and 46b-215, as amended by this act, 1782 applications for show cause orders in IV-D support cases brought 1783 pursuant to subsection (b) of section 46b-172, as amended by this act, 1784 and actions for interstate enforcement of child and spousal support 1785 and paternity under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, 1786 of this act, and shall hear and determine all motions for modifications 1787 of child and spousal support in such cases.

1788 (B) In all IV-D support cases, family support magistrates shall have 1789 the authority to order any obligor who is subject to a plan for 1790 reimbursement of past-due support and is not incapacitated to 1791 participate in work activities which may include, but shall not be 1792 limited to, job search, training, work experience and participation in 1793 the job training and retraining program established by the Labor
1794 Commissioner pursuant to section 31-3t.

1795 (C) A family support magistrate shall not modify an order for 1796 periodic payment on an arrearage due the state for state assistance 1797 which has been discontinued to increase such payments, unless the 1798 family support magistrate first determines that the state has made a 1799 reasonable effort to notify the current recipient of child support, at the 1800 most current address available to the IV-D agency, of the pendency of 1801 the motion to increase such periodic arrearage payments and of the 1802 time and place of the hearing on such motion. If such recipient 1803 appears, either personally or through a representative, at such hearing, 1804 the family support magistrate shall determine whether the order in 1805 effect for child support is reasonable in relation to the current financial 1806 circumstances of the parties, prior to modifying an order increasing 1807 such periodic arrearage payments.

1808 (3) Family support magistrates shall review and approve or 1809 disapprove all agreements for support in IV-D support cases filed with 1810 the Family Support Magistrate Division in accordance with sections 1811 17b-179, 17b-745, as amended by this act, 46b-172, as amended by this 1812 act, 46b-215, as amended by this act, and subsection (c) of section 53-1813 304.

1814 (4) Motions for modification of existing child and spousal support

1815 orders entered by the Superior Court in IV-D support cases, including 1816 motions to modify existing child and spousal support orders entered 1817 in actions brought pursuant to chapter 815j, shall be brought in the 1818 Family Support Magistrate Division and decided by a family support 1819 magistrate. Family support magistrates, in deciding if a spousal or 1820 child support order should be modified, shall make such 1821 determination based upon the criteria set forth in sections 46b-84 and 1822 46b-215b. A person who is aggrieved by a decision of a family support 1823 magistrate modifying a Superior Court order is entitled to appeal such 1824 decision in accordance with the provisions of subsection (n) of this 1825 section.

1826 (5) Proceedings to establish paternity in IV-D support cases shall be 1827 filed in the family support magistrate division for the judicial district 1828 where the mother or putative father resides. The matter shall be heard 1829 and determined by a family support magistrate in accordance with the 1830 provisions of chapter 815y.

1831 (6) Agreements for support obtained in IV-D support cases shall be 1832 filed with the assistant clerk of the family support magistrate division 1833 for the judicial district where the mother or the father of the child 1834 resides, pursuant to subsection (b) of section 46b-172, as amended by 1835 this act, and shall become effective as an order upon filing with the 1836 clerk. Such support agreements shall be reviewed by a family support 1837 magistrate who shall approve or disapprove the agreement. If the 1838 support agreement filed with the clerk is disapproved by a family 1839 support magistrate, the reason for disapproval shall be stated in the 1840 record and such disapproval shall have a retroactive effect. Upon such 1841 disapproval, the clerk shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of 1842 determining appropriate support amounts and shall notify all 1843 appearing parties of the hearing date.

1844 (7) Family support magistrates shall enforce orders for child and 1845 spousal support entered by such family support magistrate and by the 1846 Superior Court in IV-D support cases by citing an obligor for 1847 contempt. Family support magistrates, in IV-D support cases, may 1848 order any obligor who is subject to a plan for reimbursement of past-1849 due support and is not incapacitated, to participate in work activities 1850 which may include, but shall not be limited to, job search, training, 1851 work experience and participation in the job training and retraining 1852 program established by the Labor Commissioner pursuant to section 1853 31-3t. Family support magistrates shall also enforce income 1854 withholding orders entered pursuant to section 52-362, as amended by 1855 this act, including any additional amounts to be applied toward 1856 liquidation of any arrearage, as required under subsection (e) of said 1857 section. Family support magistrates may require the obligor to furnish 1858 recognizance to the state of Connecticut in the form of a cash deposit 1859 or bond of such character and in such amount as the Family Support 1860 Magistrate Division deems proper to assure appearance at the next 1861 regular session of the Family Support Magistrate Division in the 1862 judicial district in which the matter is pending. Upon failure of the 1863 obligor to post such bond, the family support magistrate may refer the 1864 obligor to a community correctional center until he has complied with 1865 such order, provided the obligor shall be heard at the next regular 1866 session of the Family Support Magistrate Division in the court to 1867 which he was summoned. If no regular session is held within seven 1868 days of such referral, the family support magistrate shall either cause a 1869 special session of the Family Support Magistrate Division to be 1870 convened, or the obligor shall be heard by a Superior Court judge in 1871 the judicial district in which the matter is pending. If the obligor fails 1872 to appear before the family support magistrate at the time and place he 1873 is ordered to appear, the family support magistrate may order the 1874 bond, if any, forfeited, and the proceeds thereof distributed as required 1875 by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, and the family support 1876 magistrate may issue a capias mittimus for the arrest of the obligor, 1877 ordering him to appear before the family support magistrate. A family 1878 support magistrate may determine whether or not an obligor is in 1879 contempt of the order of the Superior Court or of a family support 1880 magistrate and may make such orders as are provided by law to 1881 enforce a support obligation, except that if the family support 1882 magistrate determines that incarceration of an obligor for failure to 1883 obey a support order may be indicated, the family support magistrate 1884 shall inform the obligor of his right to be represented by an attorney 1885 and his right to a court-appointed attorney to represent him if he is 1886 indigent. If the obligor claims he is indigent and desires an attorney to 1887 represent him, the family support magistrate shall conduct a hearing to 1888 determine if the obligor is indigent. If, after such hearing, the family 1889 support magistrate finds that the obligor is indigent, the family 1890 support magistrate shall appoint an attorney to represent the obligor.

1891 (8) Agreements between parties as to custody and visitation of 1892 minor children in IV-D support cases may be filed with the assistant 1893 clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division. Such agreements shall 1894 be reviewed by a family support magistrate, who shall approve the 1895 agreement unless he finds such agreement is not in the best interests of 1896 the child. Agreements between parties as to custody and visitation in 1897 IV-D support cases shall be enforced in the same manner as 1898 agreements for support are enforced, pursuant to subdivision (7) of 1899 this subsection.

1900 (9) Whenever an obligor is before a family support magistrate in 1901 proceedings to establish, modify or enforce a support order in a IV-D 1902 support case and such order is not secured by an income withholding 1903 order, the family support magistrate may require the obligor to execute 1904 a bond or post other security sufficient to perform such order for 1905 support, provided the family support magistrate finds that such a 1906 bond is available for purchase within the financial means of the 1907 obligor. Upon failure of such obligor to comply with such support 1908 order, the family support magistrate may order the bond or the 1909 security forfeited and the proceeds thereof distributed as required by 1910 Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

1911 (10) In any proceeding in the Family Support Magistrate Division, if 1912 the family support magistrate finds that a party is indigent and unable 1913 to pay a fee or fees payable to the court or to pay the cost of service of 1914 process, the family support magistrate shall waive such fee or fees and 1915 the cost of service of process shall be paid by the state.

1916       (11) A family support magistrate may dismiss any action or 1917 proceeding which the family support magistrate may hear and 1918 determine.

1919       (12) A family support magistrate may order parties to participate in 1920 the parenting education program in accordance with the provisions of 1921 section 46b-69b.

1922       (13) Family support magistrates may issue writs of habeas corpus 1923 ad testificandum in IV-D support cases for persons in the custody of 1924 the Commissioner of Correction.

1925       (n) (1) A person who is aggrieved by a final decision of a family 1926 support magistrate is entitled to judicial review by way of appeal 1927 under this section.

1928       (2) Proceedings for such appeal shall be instituted by filing a 1929 petition in superior court for the judicial district in which the decision 1930 of the family support magistrate was rendered not later than fourteen 1931 days after filing of the final decision with an assistant clerk assigned to 1932 the Family Support Magistrate Division or, if a rehearing is requested, 1933 not later than fourteen days after filing of the notice of the decision 1934 thereon. In a IV-D support case, such petitions shall be accompanied 1935 by a certification that copies of the petition have been served upon the 1936 IV-D agency as defined in subsection (b) of this section and all parties 1937 of record. Service upon the IV-D agency may be made by the appellant 1938 mailing a copy of the petition by certified mail to the office of the 1939 Attorney General in Hartford.

1940       (3) Within fourteen days after the filing of the petition, or within 1941 such further time as may be allowed by the court, the Family Support 1942 Magistrate Division shall transmit to the reviewing court the original 1943 or a certified copy of the entire record of the proceeding appealed 1944 from, which shall include the decision of the family support 1945 magistrate. The court may require or permit subsequent corrections or 1946 additions to the record.

1947       (4) The aggrieved party shall file with his appeal a statement that no 1948 transcript is required for the purpose of determining the issues raised 1949 on appeal or a statement that he has ordered a transcript. A transcript 1950 may be filed by any party to an appeal and shall be filed within thirty 1951 days from the filing of said appeal unless the time for filing such 1952 transcript is extended by order of the Superior Court or the family 1953 support magistrate. Costs of preparing the transcript shall be paid by 1954 the party ordering the preparation of the transcript.

1955       (5) If, before the date set for hearing, application is made to the 1956 Superior Court for leave to present additional evidence, and it is 1957 shown to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is 1958 material and that there were good reasons for failure to present it in 1959 the proceeding before the family support magistrate, the Superior 1960 Court may permit additional evidence be taken before it upon 1961 conditions determined by the court.

1962       (6) The appeal shall be conducted by the Superior Court without a 1963 jury and shall be confined to the record and such additional evidence 1964 as the Superior Court has permitted to be introduced. The Superior 1965 Court, upon request, shall hear oral argument and receive written 1966 briefs.

1967       (7) The Superior Court may affirm the decision of the family 1968 support magistrate or remand the case for further proceedings. The 1969 Superior Court may reverse or modify the decision if substantial rights 1970 of the appellant have been prejudiced because the decision of the 1971 family support magistrate is: (A) In violation of constitutional or 1972 statutory provisions; (B) in excess of the statutory authority of the 1973 family support magistrate; (C) made upon unlawful procedure; (D) 1974 affected by other error of law; (E) clearly erroneous in view of the 1975 reliable, probative, and substantial evidence on the whole record; or 1976 (F) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or 1977 clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

1978       (8) Any order entered by the court pursuant to an appeal under this

1979 subsection may be retroactive to the date of the original order entered 1980 by the family support magistrate.

1981 (9) Upon all such appeals which are denied, costs may be taxed in 1982 favor of the prevailing party at the discretion of the Superior Court, 1983 but no costs shall be taxed against the state.

1984 (10) In any case in which any party claims that he cannot pay the 1985 costs of an appeal or defending an appeal under this section, he shall, 1986 within the time permitted for filing the appeal, or the time permitted 1987 for filing of a transcript of testimony if preparation of such transcript is 1988 required, file with the clerk of the superior court to which the appeal is 1989 to be taken an application for waiver of payment of such fees, costs 1990 and necessary expenses. The application shall conform to rules 1991 adopted pursuant to section 51-14. After such hearing as the Superior 1992 Court determines is necessary, the Superior Court shall enter its 1993 judgment on the application, which judgment shall contain a statement 1994 of the facts the Superior Court has found, with its conclusions thereon.
1995 The filing of the application for the waiver shall toll the time limits for 1996 the filing of an appeal until such time as a judgment on such 1997 application is entered.

1998 (o) Upon final determination of any appeal from a decision of a 1999 family support magistrate by the Superior Court, there shall be no 2000 right to further review except to the Appellate Court. The procedure 2001 on such appeal to the Appellate Court shall, except as otherwise 2002 provided herein, be in accordance with the procedures provided by 2003 rule or law for the appeal of judgments rendered by the Superior Court 2004 unless modified by rule of the judges of the Appellate Court. There 2005 shall be no right to further review except to the Supreme Court 2006 pursuant to the provisions of section 51-197f.

2007 (p) The filing of an appeal from a decision of a family support 2008 magistrate does not affect the order of support of a family support 2009 magistrate, but it shall continue in effect until the appeal is decided, 2010 and thereafter, unless denied, until changed by further order of a 2011 family support magistrate or the Superior Court.

2012 (q) When an order for child or spousal support has been entered 2013 against an obligor by the Superior Court in an action originating in the 2014 Superior Court, such order shall supersede any previous order for 2015 child or spousal support against such obligor entered by a family 2016 support magistrate and shall also supersede any previous agreement 2017 for support executed by such obligor and filed with the Family 2018 Support Magistrate Division.

2019 (r) Orders for support entered by a family support magistrate shall 2020 have the same force and effect as orders of the Superior Court, except 2021 where otherwise provided in sections 17b-81, 17b-93, 17b-179, 17b-743, 2022 17b-744, 17b-745, as amended by this act, and 17b-746, subsection (a) of 2023 section 46b-55, sections 46b-59a, 46b-86 and 46b-172, as amended by 2024 this act, this chapter, subsection (b) of section 51-348, section 52-362, as 2025 amended by this act, subsection (a) of section 52-362d, subsection (a) of 2026 section 52-362e and subsection (c) of section 53-304, and shall be 2027 considered orders of the Superior Court for the purpose of establishing 2028 and enforcing support orders of the family support magistrate, as 2029 provided in sections 17b-81, 17b-93, 17b-179, 17b-745, as amended by 2030 this act, 52-362, as amended by this act, 52-362d, 52-362e and 53-304, 2031 except as otherwise provided in this section. All orders for support 2032 issued by family support magistrates in any matter before a magistrate 2033 shall contain an order for withholding to enforce such orders as set 2034 forth in section 52-362, as amended by this act.

2035 (s) Support enforcement officers of Support Enforcement Services of 2036 the Superior Court shall:

2037 (1) Supervise the payment of any child or spousal support order in 2038 IV-D support cases and cases under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 2039 78, inclusive, of this act. Supervision of such orders is defined as the 2040 utilization of all procedures available by law to collect child or spousal 2041 support, or enforce medical support including (A) issuance and 2042 implementation of income withholdings ordered by the Superior

2043 Court or a family support magistrate pursuant to section 52-362, as 2044 amended by this act, (B) issuance of an order requiring any party to 2045 appear before a family support magistrate on an action to modify a 2046 support order pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection, (C) 2047 issuance of a capias mittimus directed to a proper officer to arrest an 2048 obligor or witness and bring such obligor or witness before a family 2049 support magistrate if such obligor or witness is served with a 2050 summons, subpoena, citation or order to appear issued by a family 2051 support magistrate, the assistant clerk of the Family Support 2052 Magistrate Division or a support enforcement officer and fails to 2053 appear, (D) if necessary, bringing an application for contempt to a 2054 family support magistrate and, in connection with such application, 2055 issuing an order requiring the obligor to appear before a family 2056 support magistrate to show cause why such obligor should not be held 2057 in contempt for failure to pay an order for child or spousal support 2058 entered by the Superior Court or a family support magistrate, (E) 2059 issuance of a National Medical Support Notice in accordance with 2060 section 46b-88, and (F) taking of acknowledgements of parties to 2061 agreements incident to the duties under subdivision (4) of this 2062 subsection;

2063 (2) In non-TFA cases, have the authority to bring petitions for 2064 support orders pursuant to section 46b-215, as amended by this act, file 2065 agreements for support with the assistant clerk of the Family Support
2066 Magistrate Division, and bring applications for show cause orders
2067 pursuant to section 46b-172, as amended by this act, and in IV-D 2068 support cases and cases under sections [46b-212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, 2069 inclusive, of this act, enforce foreign support orders registered with the 2070 Family Support Magistrate Division pursuant to sections [46b-213f to 2071 46b-213i] 44 to 47, inclusive, of this act, and file agreements for support 2072 with the assistant clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division;

2073 (3) In connection with any order or agreement entered by, or filed 2074 with, the Family Support Magistrate Division, or any order entered by 2075 the Superior Court in a IV-D support case, upon order, investigate the 2076 financial situation of the parties and report findings to the family

2077 support magistrate regarding: (A) Any pending motion to modify such 2078 order or agreement; or (B) any request or application for modification 2079 of such order or agreement made by an obligee;

2080 (4) Review child support orders (A) in non-TFA IV-D support cases 2081 (i) at the request of either parent or custodial party subject to a support 2082 order, or (ii) upon receipt of information indicating a substantial 2083 change in circumstances of any party to the support order, (B) in TFA 2084 cases, at the request of the Bureau of Child Support Enforcement, or 2085 (C) as necessary to comply with federal requirements for the child 2086 support enforcement program mandated by Title IV-D of the Social 2087 Security Act, and initiate an action before a family support magistrate 2088 to modify such support order if it is determined upon such review that 2089 the order substantially deviates from the child support guidelines 2090 established pursuant to section 46b-215a. A requesting party under 2091 subparagraph (A)(i) or (B) of this subdivision shall have a right to such 2092 review every three years without proving a substantial change in 2093 circumstances, but more frequent reviews shall be made only if such 2094 requesting party demonstrates a substantial change in circumstances.
2095 There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any deviation of less than 2096 fifteen per cent from the child support guidelines is not substantial and 2097 any deviation of fifteen per cent or more from the guidelines is 2098 substantial. Modification may be made of such support order without 2099 regard to whether the order was issued before, on or after May 9, 1991.
2100 In determining whether to modify a child support order based on a 2101 substantial deviation from such child support guidelines, 2102 consideration shall be given to the division of real and personal 2103 property between the parties set forth in any final decree entered 2104 pursuant to chapter 815j and the benefits accruing to the child as the 2105 result of such division. No order for periodic payment of support may 2106 be subject to retroactive modification, except that the family support 2107 magistrate may order modification with respect to any period during 2108 which there is a pending motion for modification of a support order 2109 from the date of service of notice of such pending motion to the 2110 opposing party pursuant to section 52-50.

2111       (5) In proceedings before the Family Support Magistrate Division
2112       under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (A) perform clerical, 2113       administrative and other nonjudicial functions on behalf of the Family 2114       Support Magistrate Division; (B) maintain a registry of support orders 2115       and judgments; and (C) assist the IV-D agency in performing its 2116       functions under sections 61 to 73, inclusive, of this act.

2117       (t) The Attorney General shall:

2118       (1) Represent the interest of the state in all actions for child or 2119       spousal support in all cases in which the state is furnishing or has 2120       furnished aid or care to one of the parties to the action or a child of one 2121       of the parties;

2122       (2) In interstate support enforcement under sections [46b-212 to 46b-2123       213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, provide necessary legal services on 2124       behalf of the support enforcement agency in providing services to a 2125       petitioner; and

2126       (3) Represent the IV-D agency in providing support enforcement 2127       services in non-TFA IV-D support cases pursuant to sections 17b-179, 2128       17b-745, as amended by this act, and 46b-215, as amended by this act.

2129       (u) (1) The Department of Social Services may in IV-D cases (A) 2130       bring petitions for support orders pursuant to section 46b-215, as 2131       amended by this act, (B) obtain acknowledgments of paternity, (C) 2132       bring applications for show cause orders pursuant to section 46b-172, 2133       as amended by this act, (D) file agreements for support with the 2134       assistant clerk of the Family Support Magistrate Division, (E) issue 2135       withholding orders entered by the Superior Court or a family support 2136       magistrate in accordance with subsection (b) of section 52-362, and (F) 2137       upon notice to the obligor and obligee, redirect payments for the 2138       support of any child receiving child support enforcement services 2139       either to the state of Connecticut or to the present custodial party, as 2140       their interests may appear, for distribution in accordance with Title IV-2141       D of the Social Security Act, provided neither the obligor nor the 2142       obligee objects in writing within ten business days from the mailing

2143 date of such notice, and provided further that any such notice shall be 2144 sent by first class mail to the most recent address of such obligor and 2145 obligee, as recorded in the state case registry pursuant to section 46b-2146 218, and a copy of such notice shall be filed with the court or family 2147 support magistrate if both the obligor and obligee fail to object to the 2148 redirected payments within ten business days from the mailing date of 2149 such notice.

2150 (2) The Department of Social Services shall provide notice not less 2151 than once every three years to the parents subject to a support order in 2152 a IV-D case informing the parents of their right to request a review 2153 under subdivision (4) of subsection (s) of this section.

2154 Sec. 90. Subsection (f) of section 52-57 of the general statutes is 2155 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 2156 1, 2015):

2157 (f) When the other methods of service of process provided under 2158 this section or otherwise provided by law cannot be effected, in actions 2159 concerning the establishment, enforcement or modification of child 2160 support orders other than actions for dissolution of marriage, 2161 including, but not limited to, such actions under sections 17b-122, 17b-2162 124 to 17b-132, inclusive, 17b-136 to 17b-138, inclusive, 17b-194 to 17b-2163 197, inclusive, 17b-222 to 17b-250, inclusive, 17b-256, 17b-263, 17b-340 2164 to 17b-350, inclusive, 17b-689b, 17b-743 to 17b-747, inclusive, and [46b-2165 212 to 46b-213w] 1 to 78, inclusive, of this act, and chapters 815, 815p, 2166 815t, 815y and 816, and actions to implement garnishments for support 2167 under section 52-362, as amended by this act, service of process may be 2168 made upon a party to the action by one of the following methods, 2169 provided proof of receipt of such process by such party is presented to 2170 the court in accordance with rules promulgated by the judges of the 2171 Superior Court:

2172 (1) By certified mail to a party to the action addressed to the 2173 employer of such party. Any service of process so sent shall include on 2174 the outside envelope the words "To be delivered to the employee in 2175 accordance with subsection (f) of section 52-57". The employer shall 2176 accept any such service of process sent by certified mail and promptly 2177 deliver such certified mail to the employee; or

2178 (2) When a party to an action under this subsection is employed by 2179 an employer with fifteen or more employees, by personal service upon 2180 an official of the employer designated as an agent to accept service of 2181 process in actions brought under this subsection. Each employer with 2182 fifteen or more employees doing business in this state shall designate 2183 an official to accept service of process for employees who are parties to 2184 such actions. The person so served shall promptly deliver such process 2185 to the employee.

2241 withholding order issued in another state and received directly by an 2242 employer in this state by following the procedures in section 43 of this 2243 act or by mailing to Support Enforcement Services the claim form 2244 delivered to the obligor pursuant to this subdivision. Such form shall 2245 be signed by the obligor and contain the obligor's address. A copy of 2246 the income withholding order shall be included.

2247 (C) Upon receipt of a claim form contesting the validity or 2248 enforcement of an income withholding order, Support Enforcement 2249 Services shall: (i) Give notice of the contest to (I) the support

2263 (D) Upon receipt of a claim form filed by Support Enforcement
2264 Services on behalf of the obligor in accordance with subparagraph (C) 2265 of this subdivision, the clerk shall promptly enter the appearance of 2266 the obligor, schedule a hearing, and give notice of the hearing to the 2267 obligor, Support Enforcement Services, the party initiating the income 2268 withholding order, and, if the obligee's address is known, the obligee.
2269 The family support magistrate shall promptly hear and determine the 2270 claim and enter the family support magistrate's determination within 2271 forty-five days from the date of the filing of the claim form. The family 2272 support magistrate shall utilize the procedures set forth in sections 32 2273 to 34, inclusive, of this act to obtain additional evidence and 2274 information as needed for a prompt determination on the claim. If the 2275 person or agency that sent the income withholding order fails to file 2276 the documents described in subparagraph (C) (iii) of this subdivision 2277 or fails to comply with a reasonable request for information or 2278 documents made under section 33 or 34 of this act, the family support

2281 to provide such notice as may be appropriate; (ii) order a temporary or 2282 partial stay of income withholding for a period not to exceed forty-five 2283 days; or (iii) sustain the obligor's objection to the validity or 2284 enforcement of the income withholding order and enjoin the employer 2285 from complying with such order. In addition to any notice given by the 2286 clerk, upon entry of the decision of the family support magistrate on 2287 the claim, Support Enforcement Services shall give notice of the 2288 decision to each employer that has directly received an income 2289 withholding order related to the obligor, the party initiating the 2290 income withholding order, the obligor and, if the obligee's address is 2291 known, the obligee.

2292 (E) If the claim form requests services to modify the support order, 2293 the Bureau of Child Support Enforcement shall assist the obligor to file 2294 a motion for modification with the appropriate tribunal of the state of 2295 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction in accordance with the law of that 2296 jurisdiction. The receipt of the request for modification shall constitute 2297 a request for Title IV-D services, but the bureau may require the 2298 making of a formal application. Such assistance shall include, but is 2299 not limited to, providing the obligor with information about how such 2300 a motion is filed, contacting the state of continuing, exclusive 2301 jurisdiction on behalf of the obligor to obtain appropriate forms, and 2302 transmitting such forms and applicable information to the appropriate 2303 tribunal in such state.

2304 (F) Venue for contested claims under this section shall be the Family 2305 Support Magistrate Division of the Superior Court in the judicial 2306 district in which the obligor resides, provided (i) if the obligor does not 2307 reside in this state, venue shall be in the judicial district of the 2308 employer who is subject to the income withholding order, and (ii) if

2309 there is an existing action concerning support of the child or children 2310 who are the subject of the income withholding order, the claim shall be 2311 filed in that action.

2312 Sec. 92. Subsection (o) of section 52-362 of the general statutes is
2314 1, 2015):

2356         (b) The remedies herein provided are in addition to and not in 2357     substitution for any other remedies.

2363     obligee or obligor of a support order issued by this state may, or (4) an 2364     agency to whom the obligee has assigned support rights may, 2365     promptly request the agency of another jurisdiction in which the 2367     purpose of obtaining income withholding against such income. The 2368 agency or Support Enforcement Services, as the case may be, shall 2369 compile and transmit promptly to the agency of the other jurisdiction 2370 all documentation required to enter a support order for this purpose.

2371 The agency or Support Enforcement Services also shall transmit 2372 immediately to the agency of the other jurisdiction a certified copy of 2373 any subsequent modifications of the support order. If the agency or 2374 Support Enforcement Services receives notice that the obligor is 2375 contesting income withholding in another jurisdiction, it shall 2376 immediately notify the individual obligee of the date, time and place of 2377 the hearings and of the obligee's right to attend.

2378 (d) When a support order is issued in another jurisdiction and the 2379 obligor has income subject to withholding in accordance with the 2380 provisions of section 52-362, as amended by this act, Support
2381 Enforcement Services shall, upon receiving a support order of another 2382 jurisdiction with the documentation specified in this subsection from 2383 an agency of another jurisdiction, or from an obligee, an obligor or an 2384 attorney for either the obligee or obligor, file such support order and 2385 documents in the registry maintained by Support Enforcement 2386 Services. Documentation required for the entry of a support order for 2387 another jurisdiction for the purpose of withholding of income shall 2388 comply with the requirements of section [46b-213h] 46 of this act. If the 2389 documentation received by Support Enforcement Services does not 2390 conform to those requirements, Support Enforcement Services shall 2391 remedy any defect which it can without the assistance of the obligee or 2392 requesting agency or person. If Support Enforcement Services is 2393 unable to make such corrections, the requesting agency or person shall 2394 immediately be notified of the necessary additions or corrections.
2395 Support Enforcement Services shall accept the documentation required 2396 by this subsection as long as the substantive requirements of this 2397 subsection are met.

2398 (e) A support order registered under subsection (d) of this section 2399 shall be enforceable by withholding in the manner and with the effect 2400 as set forth for registered support orders of another jurisdiction
2401 pursuant to section 52-362, as amended by this act. A support order

2402 from another jurisdiction filed under this section shall not be subject to 2403 modification by a court or other agency of this state except as provided 2404 in sections [46b-213o to 46b-213r] 53 to 56, inclusive, of this act. Entry 2405 of the order shall not confer jurisdiction on any court of this state for 2406 any purpose other than withholding of income.

2407 (f) Upon registration of a support order from another jurisdiction
2408 pursuant to subsection (d) of this section, Family Support Magistrate 2409 Division or Support Enforcement Services of the Superior Court acting 2410 on its behalf shall proceed as provided in section [46b-213k] 49 of this 2411 act.

2412 (g) An income withholding order under this section shall direct 2413 payment to the Bureau of Child Support Enforcement or its designated 2414 collection agent. The bureau or its designated agent shall promptly 2415 distribute payments received pursuant to an income withholding 2416 order or garnishment based on a support order of another jurisdiction 2417 entered under this section to the agency or person designated pursuant 2418 to subdivision (5) of subsection (a) of section [46b-213h] 46 of this act.
2419 A support order entered pursuant to subsection (d) of this section does 2420 not nullify and is not nullified by a support order made by a court of 2421 this state pursuant to any other section of the general statutes or a 2422 support order made by a court of any other state. Amounts collected 2423 by any withholding of income shall be credited against the amounts 2424 accruing or accrued for any period under any support orders issued 2425 either by this state or by another jurisdiction.

2426 (h) The agency or Support Enforcement Services, upon receiving a 2427 certified copy of any amendment or modification to a support order 2428 entered pursuant to subsection (d) of this section, shall file such 2429 certified copy with the clerk of Support Enforcement Services, and 2430 Support Enforcement Services shall amend or modify the order for 2431 withholding to conform to the modified support order.

2432 (i) If the agency or Support Enforcement Services determines that 2433 the obligor has obtained employment in another state or has a new or

2434 additional source of income in another state, it shall notify the agency 2435 which requested the income withholding of the changes within ten 2436 days of receiving that information and shall forward to such agency all 2437 information it has or can obtain with respect to the obligor's new 2438 address and the name and address of the obligor's new employer or 2439 other source of income. The agency or Support Enforcement Services 2440 shall include with the notice a certified copy of the order for 2441 withholding in effect in this state.

2442 (j) Any person who is the obligor on a support order of another 2443 jurisdiction may obtain a voluntary income withholding by filing with 2444 the agency a request for such withholding and a certified copy of the 2445 support order issued by such jurisdiction. The agency shall file such 2446 request for a voluntary withholding with the certified copy of the 2447 support order from the jurisdiction that entered such order with the 2448 clerk of Support Enforcement Services of the Superior Court and 2449 Support Enforcement Services, acting on behalf of the Family Support 2450 Magistrate Division, shall issue an order for withholding. Any order 2451 for withholding thus issued shall be subject to all applicable provisions 2452 of this section.

2453 Sec. 94. Sections 46b-212 to 46b-213w, inclusive, of the general
 2454 statutes are repealed. (Effective July 1, 2015)

OLR Bill Analysis*sHB 6973 (as amended by House "A")*AN ACT ADOPTING THE UNIFORM INTERSTATE FAMILY SUPPORT ACT OF 2008.SUMMARY:

This bill makes numerous changes to Connecticut's Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA) to adopt the 2008 revisions recommended by the National Council of Commissioners of Uniform State Laws and required by federal law (P.L. 113-183) to remain eligible for continued federal IV-D funding for child support enforcement (see BACKGROUND). UIFSA generally seeks to establish rules for determining which order should be given effect when two or more jurisdictions have issued conflicting support or modification orders involving the same parties. The 2008 revisions incorporate provisions from the Hague Maintenance Convention ("Convention") into state law (see BACKGROUND).

The bill repeals Connecticut's current UIFSA and replaces it with similar provisions. It makes several existing procedures for child support orders issued out-of-state or to parties residing out-of-state applicable to orders issued in a foreign country or parties residing in a foreign country (§§ 1-78 & 94). Among the other changes it makes to UIFSA, the bill:

1. adds several new definitions to conform with the 2008 revisions (§ 2);
2. replaces, throughout UIFSA, references to (1) "paternity" with "parentage of a child" and (2) "family support magistrate" and "Family Support Magistrate Division (FSMD) of the Superior Court" with "tribunal";

3. broadens the state tribunals' (i.e., the Superior Court and its FSMD) authority to modify child support orders (§ 55);
4. requires tribunals to adhere to UIFSA for support proceedings involving a foreign (a) support order, (b) tribunal, or (c) resident who is an obligee, obligor, or child in the proceedings (§ 5);
5. adds provisions to UIFSA that directly address how the Superior Court and Department of Social Services' Bureau of Child Support Enforcement (BCSE) must handle Convention support orders (i.e., orders issued in a country that is a Convention signatory) and foreign support agreements (§§ 61 – 73);
6. establishes that the BCSE and the Superior Court's Support Enforcement Services (SES) are the state's support enforcement agencies (§ 5);
7. requires SES, in UIFSA-related proceedings, to (a) perform clerical, administrative, and other nonjudicial functions on FSMD's behalf; (b) maintain a support orders and judgments registry; and (c) assist BCSE in performing its functions when handling Convention support orders and foreign support agreements (§ 89); and
8. specifies that the act's provisions are severable (i.e., if any provisions or their application are found to be invalid, the invalidity does not affect the rest of the act) (§ 78).

The bill also makes technical and conforming changes, including changes to statutory provisions that govern child support and parentage proceedings, support services and enforcement, and income withholdings.

*House Amendment "A" removes the definition for "foreign central authority," a term that is not used in the bill or in statute.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2015

§ 2 – DEFINITIONSNew Definitions

Under the bill:

1. “Convention” means the Convention on the International Recovery of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance, which concluded at the Hague on November 23, 2007;
2. “foreign country” means a country or a country’s political subdivision, other than the United States, that authorizes the issuance of support orders and (a) has been declared under federal law to be a foreign reciprocating country, (b) has established a reciprocal arrangement for child support with Connecticut, (c) has enacted a law or established procedures for issuing and enforcing support orders that are substantially similar to UIFSA, or (d) in which the Convention is in force with respect to the United States; and
3. “foreign tribunal” means a foreign country’s court, administrative agency, or quasi-judicial entity, including a competent authority under the Convention, that is authorized to establish, enforce, or modify support orders to determine a child’s parentage.

Initiating and Responding Tribunals

The law authorizes tribunals to act as either initiating or responding tribunals in proceedings to establish, enforce, or modify support orders or to determine parentage. Currently, the tribunal that requests another state's assistance is the initiating tribunal, and the tribunal that provides the assistance is the responding tribunal. To conform with the 2008 revisions, the bill broadens the definition to “initiating tribunal” and “responding tribunal” to include tribunals that request assistance from or provide assistance to a foreign country.

§§ 55, 58, & 60 – ORDER MODIFICATION

The law allows a tribunal to modify another state's child support order if (1) the parties live in Connecticut and the child (who need not live here) does not live in the state that issued the order or (2) at least one party or child lives in Connecticut and the parties consent in the issuing state to transfer the case to Connecticut. The bill also allows a tribunal to modify an order it issued if one party resides in Connecticut and the other resides outside the United States.

Under the bill, a party that obtains a modification must file a certified copy of the new order with the issuing tribunal that had jurisdiction over the earlier order within 30 days after the modification is issued. A party that fails to file the certified copy is subject to sanctions by the tribunal in which the issue of the failure to file arises. Failure to file does not affect the modified order's validity or enforceability.

In the case of a foreign child support order that is not under the Hague Convention (i.e., issued by a country that is not a signatory to the Convention), the bill allows a party or support enforcement agency seeking to modify, or modify and enforce, to register the order in Connecticut if it has not already been registered. The party or agency may make a motion for modification at the same time it registers the order or at another time. The motion must specify the grounds for modification.

§§ 61-73 – CONVENTION SUPPORT PROCEEDINGS

Sections 61 through 73 of the bill apply only to Convention support proceedings. The bill specifies that these provisions control in such proceedings even if they are inconsistent with another part of UIFSA.

Convention Procedures - §§ 63 & 64

In a support proceeding under the Convention, the bill gives BCSE the authority to (1) transmit and receive applications and (2) initiate or facilitate the establishment of a proceeding regarding an application in a tribunal in Connecticut.

Obligee. The following procedures are available to a party entitled to or seeking child support (an obligee) under the Hague Convention:

1. foreign support order recognition or recognition and enforcement;
2. enforcement of a support order issued or recognized in Connecticut;
3. establishment of a support order if there is no existing order, including, if necessary, determination of a child's parentage; and
4. modification of a Connecticut tribunal's support order or such an order from another state's or foreign country's tribunal.

Under the Convention, obligees are also able to seek a new support order if the court refuses to recognize a foreign support order because (1) the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction and (2) the order was obtained by fraud in connection with a procedural matter.

Obligees may also seek a new support order if a court refuses to recognize a foreign order in a case in which the respondent did not appear and was not represented in the issuing foreign country's proceedings and:

1. if the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard or
2. if the law of the country does not provide for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on the facts or law before a tribunal.

Obligor. The following procedures are available under the Convention to a party responsible for paying support (an obligor) under an existing support order:

1. recognition of an order suspending or limiting enforcement of an existing support order from a Connecticut tribunal and

2. modification of a support order from a tribunal in Connecticut, another state, or a foreign country.

Additionally, in proceedings under the Convention, a tribunal may not require a security, bond, or deposit to guarantee payment of associated costs and expenses.

Direct Requests - § 65

Under the bill, a “direct request” is a petition filed by an individual in a Connecticut tribunal proceeding involving an obligee, obligor, or child residing outside the United States.

Establishment or Modification. The bill allows a petitioner to file with a tribunal a direct request seeking establishment or modification of a support order or a determination of a child’s parentage. Connecticut law applies to such proceedings.

Recognition or Enforcement. A petitioner may also file a direct request seeking recognition or enforcement of a support order or agreement. UIFSA applies to such proceedings.

In a direct request for recognition and enforcement of a Convention support order or foreign support agreement:

1. a security, bond, or deposit is not required to guarantee the payments of costs and expenses and
2. an obligee or obligor that benefited from free legal assistance in the issuing country is entitled, at least to the same extent, to any free legal assistance provided for by state law under the same circumstances.

Under the bill, a petitioner filing a direct request is not entitled to assistance from BCSE. The provisions of the bill pertaining to direct requests do not prevent tribunals from applying state laws that provide simplified, more expeditious rules regarding a direct request for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support order or foreign support agreement.

Convention Order Registration - § § 66, 73

An individual or a support enforcement agency seeking recognition of a Convention support order generally must register the order in Connecticut, as is the case for non-Convention orders under UIFSA.

Generally, a request for Convention support order registration must be accompanied by:

1. the order's complete text;
2. a record, in its original language with a certified English translation, stating that the order is enforceable in the issuing country;
3. if the respondent did not appear and was not represented in the proceeding in the issuing country, a record attesting, as appropriate, that he or she had proper notice and an opportunity to be heard either in the proceedings or in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal;
4. records showing (a) the amount of any arrears and the information necessary to make the appropriate calculations and (b) any requirement for automatic adjustment of a support amount and the information needed to make the appropriate calculations; and
5. if necessary, a record showing any free legal assistance the applicant received in the issuing country.

A party seeking to register a Convention support order may seek recognition and partial enforcement of the order.

Vacating an Order - § 66

Under the bill, a tribunal may vacate a Convention support order's registration without a party contesting it if, acting on its own motion, it finds that the order's recognition and enforcement would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

Contesting a Registered Convention Order - §§ 67-69

Deadline for Contesting Orders. The bill gives parties contesting registered Convention support orders more time to file the contest than allowed for contesting registered non-Convention orders under UIFSA (typically within 20 days of receiving notice of registration). A party contesting a registered Convention support order must file a contest within (1) 30 days after notice of the registration or (2) if the contesting party lives outside the United States, within 60 days after the notice. Under UIFSA, a party must file a contest within 20 days after notice of registration. If the nonregistering party fails to contest the order within the appropriate time period, the order is enforceable.

Grounds to Contest Order. Under current law, a party may contest a support order's validity on several enumerated grounds for which he or she bears the burden of proof, including if the tribunal lacks personal jurisdiction or the order was obtained by fraud. Under the bill, a party may contest a Convention support order on similar grounds in addition to grounds specific to international agreements, for which he or she has the burden of proof, such as:

1. the order's enforcement and recognition is manifestly incompatible with public policy, including the issuing tribunal's failure to observe minimum standards of due process, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard;
2. the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction;
3. the order is unenforceable in the issuing country or was obtained by fraud in connection with a procedural matter;
4. a record accompanying a registration request is inauthentic or lacks integrity;

5. a proceeding between the same parties with the same purpose is pending before a tribunal and was filed first;
6. the order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same parties with the same purpose if the more recent order is entitled to enforcement and recognition under UIFSA;
7. the amount in arrears has been fully or partially paid;
8. if the respondent did not appear and was not represented in the proceeding in the issuing foreign country, he or she did not have proper notice and an opportunity to be heard either in the proceedings or in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal; or
9. a tribunal modified the order even though the obligee is still a resident of the foreign country where the support order was issued and none of the bill's exceptions apply.

In a Convention order contest, the tribunal (1) is bound by the factual findings on which the foreign tribunal based its jurisdiction, (2) may not review the order's merits, and (3) must promptly notify the parties of its decision.

A challenge or appeal of a Convention order does not suspend the order's enforcement unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Refusal to Enforce and Recognize an Order. Under current law, a tribunal must generally recognize and enforce a support order from another state. Under the bill, a tribunal may refuse to recognize and enforce a Convention order on any of the above grounds if the contesting party meets the burden of proof.

The court may not dismiss the proceeding without providing the parties a reasonable time to request a new support order if the order is not recognized in Connecticut because (1) the issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction, (2) the order was obtained by fraud in connection with a procedural matter, or (3) it is a case in which the respondent did not appear and was not represented in the proceeding in the issuing country and he or she did not have proper notice and an opportunity to be heard either in the proceedings or in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal. Also, when a Convention order is refused on these grounds, BCSE must take all appropriate measures to request a child support order for the obligee if the bureau received an application for recognition and enforcement.

Under the bill, if a tribunal does not recognize or enforce a Convention support order in its entirety, it must enforce any part of it that it can. An application or direct request may seek recognition and partial enforcement of such an order.

Convention Order Modification - § 71

The bill prohibits a tribunal from modifying a Convention child support order if the obligee is still a resident of the foreign country where the order was issued, unless (1) the obligee submits to the tribunal's jurisdiction, either expressly or by defending the case on its merits without objecting to the jurisdiction at the first available opportunity or (2) the foreign tribunal lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify or issue a new support order.

Foreign Support Agreements - §§ 61, 70

A foreign support agreement is (1) a maintenance arrangement or authentic instrument under the Convention or (2) an agreement for support in a record that:

- a. is enforceable as a support order in the country of origin;
- b. has been either informally drawn up or registered as an authentic instrument or authenticated by a foreign tribunal, or concluded, registered or filed with a foreign tribunal; and
- c. may be reviewed and modified by a foreign tribunal.

Under the bill, tribunals must generally recognize and enforce foreign support agreements registered in Connecticut. Applications or direct requests for agreement recognition must be accompanied by (1) the agreement's complete text and (2) a record stating that the agreement is enforceable as a support order in the issuing country.

A tribunal may only vacate the agreement's registration if, acting on its own motion, it finds that recognizing and enforcing the agreement would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

In a foreign support agreement contest, a tribunal may refuse to recognize and enforce an agreement if it finds:

1. recognizing and enforcing the agreement is manifestly incompatible with public policy;
2. the agreement (a) was obtained by fraud or falsification or (b) is incompatible with a recognizable and enforceable support order involving the same parties and with the same purpose in Connecticut, another state, or a foreign country; or
3. the record stating that the agreement is enforceable lacks authenticity or integrity.

A proceeding for foreign support agreement recognition and enforcement must be suspended while a challenge to or appeal of the agreement is pending before another state's or foreign country's tribunal.

Personal Information - § 72

Under the bill, personal information gathered for Convention support proceedings may only be used for the purposes for which it was gathered or transmitted.

BACKGROUND

UIFSA

UIFSA's general purpose is to create uniform rules and procedures, simplifying child support enforcement when the parties live in different states. In some cases, its provisions supplant state laws. In others, they specify which state's procedural and substantive laws are controlling.

All states had enacted some form of UIFSA by 1998, due in part to a provision in the 1996 federal welfare law that restricted states' eligibility for matching federal child support enforcement funds to those states that had enacted it. Prior to this latest revision, the UIFSA was most recently revised in 2001. Connecticut adopted most of those revisions in 2007.

IV-D Funding and P.L. 113-183

By law, "IV-D child support cases" are those cases where BCSE is providing child support enforcement services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act related to cases where children are the beneficiaries of temporary family assistance (TFA), Medicaid, or foster care. BCSE was established and authorized to administer the child support program mandated by Title IV-D of the Social Security Act (CGS § 46b-231(13)).

The federal Preventing Sex Trafficking and Strengthening Families Act (P.L. 113-183) requires all states to adopt the 2008 revisions to UIFSA to remain eligible for continued federal Title IV-D funding for child support enforcement.

Hague Maintenance Convention

From June 2003 to November 2007, more than 70 countries, including the United States, met in The Hague, Netherlands, to establish a new Hague Convention on the Enforcement of Child Support and Other Forms of Family Maintenance. The Convention's purpose was to standardize the child support processes countries follow when handling child support issues that involve parties in different countries. The United States signed the Convention on November 23, 2007, but the changes have not yet been incorporated into federal law. The Convention's changes to child support enforcement are incorporated into the most recent revision of UIFSA.

Related Bill

SB 1030 (File 711), favorably reported by the Judiciary Committee, makes numerous changes to state laws related to child support enforcement. Among the changes, it:

1. appropriates funds to BCSE and SES for staffing;
2. expands the authorized means of serving child support warrants or capias orders (i.e., orders to compel someone to appear in court); and
3. establishes a 10-member task force to study technology and other initiatives to maximize child support collection.
